Rest in Peace

Joseph D’Alessandro
Helen Pietrangelo
My Dear Parish Family,

Here we are in the final six weeks of Ordinary Time and we hear from the Gospel of Luke a reminder of what we heard way back in the beginning of this liturgical season, namely that “Jesus continued His journey to Jerusalem.” Jesus is still tracking towards His trial, passion, death and resurrection that will occur in Jerusalem. St. Luke frames his telling of events and encounters with Jesus within the framework of this pilgrimage toward His ultimate mission.

The day of this passage is a good day for ten lepers. According to the law given in Leviticus those who contracted leprosy, because of its infectious nature, were required to completely remove themselves from the community. They could not participate in any communal activity even as simple as eating, sleeping, gathering for prayer – nothing. They were ostracized, socially, physically and spiritually. Because of where Luke situates this event, we might assume that this sad group of ten was made up of a mix of Samaritans and Jews. They meet Jesus, who is on His way to a similar fate of rejection in Jerusalem. They call Jesus by name and beg for mercy.

His instruction to go show themselves to the priest is also a requirement of the law. The priests were the judge/jury/physician who determined if the leprosy had indeed been cured and no longer endangered the community. On their way, they are ALL cured but only 10% of them makes the connection that it was Jesus who brought it about. Did the other nine think it was just their “good luck” that cured them? We really cannot say. However, that mustard seed of faith in this one Samaritan recognized God’s action in his life and he “returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.”

We learn two things from this episode. First, is that even Samaritans, thought to be outsiders when it comes to God’s people, are recipients of God’s invitation to the kingdom. This should remind us that those we see on life’s margins are likewise eligible recipients. The other is a reminder that the factor that enabled God’s healing to flow was the man’s faith: “Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.” In the end, faith in the Savior is what cures us, heals us and saves us. End of story.

In Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Holy Rosary Church Parish Pilgrimage to Italy in October 2020

A special pilgrimage to Italy is planned for Holy Rosary parishioners from October 16-27, 2020.
