My Parish Family,

Today’s section of St. Luke’s Gospel presents an episode near the end of Jesus’ resolute pilgrimage to Jerusalem. His opponents, the Sadducees, are setting an elaborate trap for Jesus, in an attempt to get Him to contradict Moses and the Jewish Scriptures regarding marriage. What happens instead is that Jesus foils their ill-conceived plan by revealing the illogical nature of their question. In the process, we also learn more about heaven than anything else.

Jesus speaks of this age, the here and now of our earthly existence and the next age, the form of life that follows this mortal one. “The children of this age marry and remarry but those deemed worthy to attain to the coming age, neither marry nor are given in marriage.”

Clearly, what our Lord tells us is that marriage, even in its truest and best sense, as God intended is – of this age only not the next! If we let that sink in for a minute and remember what the one true and best purpose of marriage is – the good of the spouse. Marriage is meant to be a holy, sanctifying experience in this life in which each spouse’s goal is to assist the other in gaining heaven, the ultimate good for the other. If this goal of marriage is achieved and heaven is obtained, then marriage has served its purpose. Hence, marriage in the next life makes no sense.

What we learn from this exchange is that we cannot limit our imagination of heaven by what we know of life in this age. As much as any widow or widower longs to be reunited with their departed loved one, heaven is so much more than that reunion. We cannot adequately describe heaven using marriage, or assets, or even a perfectly manicured golf course where we always score under par. All of these pale in comparison to what the yet unseen reality of heaven will be like. It is written elsewhere in scripture in speaking of heaven: “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him.”

(1 Corinthians 2:9)

In Christ,
Deacon Bruce

2020 Mass Intentions – Mass Book

The Mass Book is now open for all Mass intentions for 2020. The suggested donation is $10.00 per Mass. Please call or stop in the Parish Office during business hours.

Questions? Please call (216) 421-2995.

Why Request A Mass Intention?

“All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

...From the beginning, the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God.”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1030, 1032)

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Opportunity for Confession

Each Wednesday, there is one hour of Eucharistic Adoration from 6:30-7:30 p.m. The Sacrament of Penance is also available at this time.
