Second Sunday of Advent
Reflection on Today's Readings

The readings for December 8, the Second Sunday of Advent, share a message of great hope – and the need to prepare for a significant event.

The beginning of the first reading from Isaiah presents imagery of the Messiah emerging from the root of Jesse. The language used is hopeful and anticipatory, much like the first warm spring day. Next, multiple gifts of the Holy Spirit are listed: wisdom, understanding, counsel, strength, knowledge and fear of the Lord. This Scripture passage may remind parents of when their child received the Sacrament of Confirmation, and the great joy experienced as the spiritual gifts received on the child’s baptism day were now sealed and strengthened. A parent may note how quickly growth occurs from a tiny infant held in one’s arms to a strong young teenager completing the sacraments of initiation. Parents are called to continue to nurture their child’s faith, but begin to step back to allow the young person to embrace his or her own personal journey of faith.

Each year during the Advent season, the demands of preparing for the commercial focus of Christmas such as shopping for gifts, decorating the tree, taking children or grandchildren to see Santa, and attending holiday parties creates competition with the true meaning of the Advent season which is primarily to prepare for the second coming of Christ at the end of time. However, we must strive to balance the “busyness” of fulfilling the many responsibilities and expectations of this time of year with personal spiritual preparation as called for by John the Baptist in the Gospel reading from Matthew: Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Advent is a special time each year to personally focus on how we spiritually prepare our own heart anew for Jesus.

On Wednesday, December 11th, Holy Rosary will provide an opportunity for individual confession during our annual Advent Communal Penance service at 6:30 p.m. in conjunction with Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish. Several priests will be in attendance, and we encourage you to reflect upon your relationships with Jesus Christ and with others, and to renew your efforts in living as a true Christian disciple. If it has been a long time since you went to confession, we especially invite you to attend. An examination of conscience will be available as well as a guide to the sacrament.

Throughout today’s Scripture readings, we are reminded that although the commercial Christmas shopping season began months ago, we must remain focused and steadfast in our faith. All worldly things are fleeting and ever-changing. The only true constant is Jesus Christ, our Savior, whose appearance in the world was foretold by both the prophet Isaiah and John the Baptist in our readings today. May this Advent season of anticipation, repentance and hopefulness ultimately bear great spiritual fruit during the Christmas season—which we will celebrate beginning on Christmas Eve.

In Christ’s Peace,
Tammy Moore

2020 Mass Intentions — Mass Book
The Mass Book is now open for all Mass intentions for 2020. The suggested donation is $10.00 per Mass. Please call or stop in the Parish Office during business hours. Questions? Please call (216) 421-2995.

Why Request A Mass Intention? “All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven...From the beginning, the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1030, 1032).
