WEDDING BANNS
III Megan Crawford & Dustin Likens
My Parish Family,

The scripture passages are chosen for each Sunday liturgy by Mother Church with great care. The usual pattern is to select an Old Testament reading that highlights or prefigures the events of the Gospel. The responsorial psalm echoes the message of the first reading from the Old Testament and the second reading, usually from the letters of epistles, can sometimes be a stand-alone passage and it may or may not have the same theme as the other two main readings.

Oftentimes the second reading may be difficult to understand because it may be taken out of context from the letter to which it belongs. Today’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles is an example. St. Peter is the speaker and he begins by stating, “In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.” To hear this address to the house of Cornelius (a Gentile) you might think that St. Peter is simply being respectful and politically correct by this inclusive, open minded remark. Nothing could be further from the truth. Up until just a few days earlier, Peter was a devout Jew with a legalistic interpretation of the Jewish law which prohibited interacting with Gentiles and required strict dietary restrictions. All that changed after his encounter with the Risen Lord.

I would advise you to go back and read the entire tenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles to get the full story. (Spoiler Alert!!) St. Peter had skipped lunch so he was hungry. While at prayer he fell into a trance in which before him were presented ALL types of animals, both kosher and profane. He was instructed to kill and eat. He refused based on his Jewish background. This cycle was repeated three times – a familiar number for Peter. At the conclusion of the vision St. Peter was a different man with an entirely new outlook on a broader audience for the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Baptism of the Lord is really another Epiphany in which Jesus is revealed as the beloved son of the Father who, infused completely by the Holy Spirit, has taken on human flesh in order to redeem ALL people to Himself. This includes Gentiles. It took some extra work to get St. Peter to come around to this understanding but by God’s grace he did.

In Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Welcome Back to Campus!

All of us at Holy Rosary and Newman Catholic Campus Ministry are happy to have you all back in University Circle. As most of you are adjusting to your new semester schedule, we will have a light week this first week. Here’s what we have for you all this week.

Events this Week:

Thursday 1/16 – 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Center - Newman Night: “Boredom and the Call to Holiness”

Have you ever felt like you were doing everything right – going to Mass every Sunday, praying every day, reading the Bible a few times a week – but your spiritual life just felt empty? Or have you ever found yourself bored of it all to the point where you weren’t doing those things as much? That boredom sounds and feels like a bad thing. But what if it’s not? What if it can be a sign of a great thing coming in your life as a Christian? Join us Thursday Night in the Parish Center for a discussion about what great works the Spirit may be bringing about in you in these moments. Come hear your friends’ stories and share your own! Join at 6:30 p.m. for a homemade Mac & Cheese dinner or 7:00 p.m. for the conversation!

Last Week to Sign up for FIDES

Last semester we launched our student-led small group ministry, FIDES, and both our leaders and participants have had great things to say about their experiences. Many of you signed up to join over Christmas break, but if you would like to gather weekly one of our small group communities and still haven’t signed up, our groups are open for one more week! Sign up by Friday at bit.ly/fidesspring2020.

March for Life and Spring Retreat

In the late evening of Thursday, January 23rd, we’ll be joining the other Newman Campuses in the Diocese of Cleveland to go to the March for Life in Washington, D.C. We’ll be back in the early morning of Saturday the 25th, so you’ll only need to miss one day of classes to attend this year! We’ll also be partnering with the other campuses for our Spring Retreat this year, this will be taking place from Friday, February 21 to Saturday February 22. This is the first time in over five years that all campuses have been together for a Spring Retreat, so we hope you’ll join us! To mark your interest for either or both of these events, give us your name at bit.ly/newmanspringtrips.
