Reflection on Today’s Scripture Readings

Brothers and sisters:
What will separate us from the love of Christ?  (Romans 8:35)

Today’s Gospel is the familiar story of the feeding of the multitude when five loaves and two fish miraculously fed a crowd of thousands. Less familiar perhaps is the first part of this Scripture passage which reveals that upon hearing of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus sought solitude and retreated to a quiet place.

Despite His need for solitude, the vast crowds followed Him. His time of mourning was interrupted by those who hungered for His healing presence. “His heart was moved with pity for them, and He cured their sick.” (Mt 14:14) Jesus selflessly joins the crowd he had initially avoided and cures the sick among them. He feeds their spiritual hunger and finally nourishes them physically with the food they miraculously share—with abundant leftovers collected in the end.

This story is a reminder that a life of service to others is part of who we are as Catholic Christians. We are not alone on this earth! We all know individuals who generously set their own concerns or struggles aside when someone else is in need of support or assistance. This can be the loving act of a parent awakening to feed a crying infant, or the kindness of a random stranger helping someone in need when their paths unexpectedly cross, or the choice of a career in healthcare or social service. Other examples include listening attentively to a friend or family member when they need to talk, being a caretaker for an elderly or ill family member, or giving generously through financial sacrifices made for those in greater need.

Today’s Second Reading begins with Saint Paul asking the question highlighted above: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Like the crowd of disciples following Jesus to that deserted place, we too are called to let nothing stand between us and Jesus. We must seek Him as they did despite life’s challenges.

Fear and anxiety may tempt us daily, but Saint Paul reassures us that truly nothing will separate us from the love of God. Basically, there is no excuse to be made — not even “anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword.” and additionally, “neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth . . . will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:35, 38-39)

This is a dramatic statement! Our prayer is that this affirmation of God’s love will bring peace and comfort as we suffer through the uncertainties of the present day. No one expected to be staying home from public worship, wearing masks, working remotely, attending school virtually, canceling holiday celebrations, family parties, and vacations — or expressing love for our elderly relatives and friends by not visiting them. It’s a painful, confusing and unusual time in our lives as we pray for resolution and fewer deaths from the virus.

We must act prudently, trusting that whatever the present and future may hold, God is holding us close to Him in abundant and infinite love. We daily seek to grow nearer to Him and are strengthened by today’s Scriptures with their reminder that absolutely nothing can distance us from God’s unfailing love which sustains us.

Holy Rosary Parking Lot
Attending Mass

- New Exit onto Coltman Road
- Please Enter on East 120th Street
- Arrive Early for Social Distancing

Note that the parking lot has been paved and is open for parishioner parking. We are using a new traffic pattern in which we enter on East 120th Street and exit using either the new exit onto Coltman Road or onto East 120th. The driveway from Mayfield Road is blocked for the safety of pedestrians entering and exiting from church.

We also encourage you to arrive early for Mass to allow extra time for being seated as the greeters ensure adequate social distancing between households and individuals. We are grateful for your courtesy in wearing masks, using hand sanitizer and moving down to make room in the pews. Please know that your courteous actions make others feel comfortable attending Mass in-person. Thank you!

Important Guidelines Relating to Mass Attendance:

- The Sunday Mass schedule remains the same: 5pm vigil on Saturday, 8:30 am, 11 am and 8pm on Sundays.
- A recording of Mass is available on the website at 8:30 a.m. each Sunday.
- Weekday Masses continue with a modified schedule. (Mon., Tues., Weds. & Fri. at 12:15pm)
- All Masses must comply with social distancing guidelines.

The Diocese of Cleveland has provided worship guidelines to observe as Catholics return to Mass. For a full overview visit their website at: dioceseofcleveland.org/forward-with-christ/overview

Before Attending Mass at Holy Rosary:

- Please remain at home and watch Mass online or on television if you are sick or if you are in an at-risk category or if someone in your household is in an at-risk category. The dispensation from attending Mass continues for all during this uncertain time.
- Please wash your hands before coming to church and sanitize your hands as needed before entering, when exiting, and after contact with your face.
- You are asked to WEAR A MASK or other face covering upon entering the church and during the celebration of Mass, except for the brief moment of receiving Holy Communion.
- No missals or hymnals will be available in the pews. If you have your own missal, you may bring it for personal use.
- Holy water fonts will remain empty.
- Be mindful of six feet distance and tape markings along the floor.
- Families with young children should note that the cry room will not be available for use.

Entering Church & During Mass:

- We ask everyone to enter via the FRONT DOORS on Mayfield Road to maintain social distance and orderly seating.
- The elevator entrance should only be used by those requiring use of the elevator.
- Please maintain social distance when entering and finding a seat.
- Families or households may sit together but should maintain six feet of distance between their family and other families or individuals.
- No offertory collection will be taken during Mass to reduce contact. We invite you to place your offertory donation envelopes in the baskets in the front sanctuary area before or after Mass.
- Singing by the congregation during Mass is temporarily omitted to reduce aerosol spread. A cantor will sing hymns for reflection and prayer.
- The sign of peace is omitted.
- Communion distribution will be in the form of the Host only. The full Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ is contained in the Consecrated Host. For the health and safety of all, reception of Holy Communion in the hand is strongly encouraged to avoid contact with an individual’s saliva. Receiving Holy Communion on the tongue is strongly discouraged for the duration of the pandemic and to safeguard the lives of others.
- For Sunday Masses—two Communion lines will be formed in the outside aisles instead of the center aisle to maintain distance. At weekday Mass, note that one single-file line will be formed in the center aisle.
- Before approaching the Communion minister, the communicant should reverence the Blessed Sacrament with a simple bow and pull their mask below the chin before standing in front of the minister, then approach the minister with hands properly ready—with upward facing palms placed on top of each other to receive Communion in the hand.
- Please maintain six feet of space between households, especially when returning to your pew via the center aisle.

Exiting After Mass:

- Please be patient following Mass to exit in an organized manner and adhere to social distancing guidelines.
- Bulletins will be handed out by individuals wearing gloves and masks.
- Note that there should be no touching, handshakes or hugs exchanged for others’ protection.
- Pews, doors and other contact areas will be disinfected after each Mass. Please discard any trash as you leave—and as a courtesy to our cleaning volunteers, do not leave anything behind in the pews. Thank you.
- Coffee and donuts and other social gatherings continue to be suspended at this time.

Other Notes:

- The church will be open for prayer a half hour before scheduled Masses.
- On Wednesday evenings the church will be open at 6:25pm for Adoration and Confession and will be promptly locked at 7:30 pm.
