The Ascension of the Lord

Continuing the Mission

The celebration of Christ's Ascension focuses our attention on just exactly what we are to do now that Jesus is no longer with us in the flesh. Jesus' mission was to bring us into union with God and with one another and to heal everything that obstructs that union. With his ascension, that mission is now ours. Each of us is consecrated and empowered to carry on this mission with the assistance of the abiding presence of the Risen Lord. How is your life a participation in this mission?

Flowers for the Altar this weekend are donated in thanksgiving to God for all the mothers of our Parish.

Happy Mother's Day

Prayer for Mother

Thank you, God for my mother. How many times have I said that I will be different from my mother – "better," unusual – not like her. Yet here I stand, morally and lovingly hers.

Thank you, God for all that she said and all that she did not say, for all that she did and all that she left undone.

Thank you, God for letting me become so many of those good things that were my mother—the things I had not the wisdom to see in earlier day. Thank you, God for my mother.

REFLECTION

Proclaim the Gospel to All Nations

The readings for this Sunday show us that it is the inherent responsibility of the disciples of Jesus to continue his mission. Jesus did not send his disciples into the world to proclaim the good news without the support necessary to accomplish their purpose. The ascending Jesus promised the power of the Holy Spirit to guide and empower his own for mission. With keen awareness of our need for the ongoing gift of the Spirit to inspire, drive, and authenticate our work as Jesus' disciples, we must remind ourselves that before Jesus sent the Church into the world, he sent the Spirit in the Church.

Like Jesus, we are sent to be fully immersed in the human condition so that every person we encounter, everything we touch, will experience the presence of God with us.

However, like Jesus, we are also to follow the lead of God who calls us apart from the ways of the world to witness to other values, to other goals so as to live an alternative lifestyle within the world inspired by our faith in the ascended Lord.

VOTIVE CANDLE INTENTIONS

The Catholic custom of lighting candles is rooted in Church teaching that Christ is the Light of the World. Candles serve as an outward sign of the light of faith burning in our hearts. They are our silent sentinels lifting up our prayer intentions to the Lord.

Remember to pray for the following intentions:

For Financial Blessings	For All Souls
For Travelers &amp; Visitors	To Save My Home
For Susan &amp; Frank Wynne	For Special Intention

PENTECOST – NEXT SUNDAY

Veni Sancte Spiritus Come Holy Spirit

As its name indicates, Pentecost is the feast that takes place fifty days after Easter Sunday. It is the crowning finale of the celebration of the Lord's resurrection, which lasts throughout Eastertime and ends with the pouring out of the Spirit over the apostles and in the Church. Pentecost is the final manifestation of God that has given birth to the Church. The liturgy commemorates the Pentecost that occurred in Jerusalem fifty days after Easter, yet transcends time. In fact, the liturgical celebration constantly makes this event present; from year to year. It allows those who celebrate the feast to share in the grace of the mystery. The celebration encompasses two Masses: one on Saturday evening, the other on Sunday. The liturgy for Pentecost offers a richly spread table, where everyone can feed on the living bread of the Word, entering into the mystery and taking its best fruits. Come, Holy Spirit!

Take time this week to pray for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on our parish family.

Prayer

*Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of thy faithful
and kindle in them the fire of thy love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And thou shall renew the face of the earth.*

*O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit,
did instruct the hearts of the faithful,
grant that by the same Holy Spirit
we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation, Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.*
