From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

It is hard for me to believe that I am down to my final three weekends in our Tri-Parish. Each weekend it seems like an extended goodbye but perhaps that is normal for our Minnesotan hospitality to have a long Minnesota goodbye. While I am confident our paths will cross in the future whether in my role as Vocations Director or in the many years ahead of my priestly ministry, things will never be like they are now. In that regard, while I do not tend to be a very sentimental type, I still very much would like to express my love and fondness for all of you. It has been an extremely blessed four years for me and it has gone way too fast. I would have loved to stay longer but God had other plans. We should not lament the plan of God! It is easy for us to want things our way or to blame the bishop or circumstances for the way things are. Acceptance and trust are the way of living the Christian life. We entrust ourselves to God and as our loving Father, we are always taken care of as His children. We can accept all circumstances as His loving will. I am confident as you did for me, this Tri-Parish will welcome Fr. Vogel with open arms. You will allow him to use the gifts that God has given him and accept him for who he is rather than who you want him to be. Sometimes we come in with expectations for leadership or for our priests to be Jesus Christ Himself...Fr. Vogel will do great in this assignment and has been chosen by God to be here; the best thing we can do is support him and work alongside him in continuing to proclaim Jesus Christ and hand on the Catholic faith. Please pray for me in this transition to a new way of ministry in seminary formation and encouraging vocations. I will always keep you in my prayers as well.

Thank you for your welcome of Deacon Joe Jacobs this weekend. We are grateful for his time and proclamation of our loving Triune God as we hear about the need in the mission Diocese of Lexington, KY. Our prayers go with him this weekend.

This weekend as we celebrate Trinity Sunday, I am reminded of St. Irenaeus in the early Church and his clarity in thought about the three distinct Persons of the Godhead. One God—Three Persons. Note his clear distinction in the relations of each Person. Here are his words:

*This is the rule of our faith, the foundation of the building, and what gives support to our behavior.
God the Father uncreated, who is uncontained, invisible, one God, creator of the universe; this is the first article of our faith.*

And the second is: The Word of God, the Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, who appeared to the prophets according to their way of prophesying and according to the dispensation of the Father. Through him all things were created. Furthermore, in the fullness of time, in order to gather all things to himself, he became a human being amongst human beings, capable of being seen and touched, to destroy death, bring life, and restore fellowship between God and humanity.

During the winter/spring months over 50 parishioners attended an 8 week study on Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. The response was overwhelmingly positive. We would like to offer the opportunity to attend these sessions this summer for anyone who could not fit it in their schedule earlier. If you are interested in unlocking the mystery of the Bible, please contact the tri-parish office. Dates, time and location will be determined by those who are interested in attending.

The longer, more detailed version of Jeff Cavins' Bible Study will be offered next year. Details will be available at a later date.

Women's Book Club will meet Thursday, June 22 at 6 p.m. at St. Teresa Church. We will have a potluck dinner, discuss the book All the Light We Cannot See, enjoy fellowship, and discuss plans for next year. All women of the tri-parish are welcome!

We joyfully welcome into the Catholic family Quinn Therese Hoeft, daughter of Thomas and Danielle Hoeft. Quinn was Baptized in Christ on June 3, at St. Joseph Parish. Please pray for her and her family that they will always live in the love of God.

St. Matthew will again be hosting Bingo at the 4th of July celebration in Vernon Center! Anyone from the tri-parish interested in helping can contact Neil Majeski-327-3559 or the tri-parish office. All help is greatly appreciated. More details will follow.

Mass Times for Travel

Summer is upon us and that usually means more travel. As you are away from home on the weekends this summer, don't leave your faith back home. There is a convenient way to find Catholic Churches and Mass times wherever you travel: go to masstimes.org and type in a city to find current churches and Mass times, or click to download their app to itunes.

Our Catholic World

Results so far for the 2017 Diocesan Catholic Ministries Appeal

	# of donors	Amount	Goal	% of goal
St. Joseph:	9	$2275	$4,770	48
St. Matthew:	10	$2585	$4,830	54
St. Teresa:	37	$6240	$13,900	45

Thank you to everyone who has given thus far for your generosity. Each year our goals must be met and any shortfall must be made up through general funds of the parish. If you have not yet given to this mission of helping our Diocesan family, it is not too late. Envelopes are available at each church..

The date for the 2018 Belize Adult Mission Trip has been set for February 17—25. If you are interested in taking part in this life changing adventure or have any questions about the mission, contact the tri-parish office or call Carol (995-1648). Come and encounter Jesus in His beloved poor. Pope Francis reminds us of the importance to go out to the fringes and encounter people. Do not be afraid—it is well worth the sacrifice and time.

Sunday Bible Reflections with Dr. Scott

We often begin Mass with the prayer from today's Epistle: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." We praise the God who has revealed himself as a Trinity, a communion of persons.

Communion with the Trinity is the goal of our worship—and the purpose of the salvation history that begins in the Bible and continues in the Eucharist and sacraments of the Church.

We see the beginnings of God's self-revelation in today's First Reading, as He passes before Moses and cries out His holy name. Israel had sinned in worshipping the golden calf (see Exodus 32). But God does not condemn them to perish. Instead He proclaims His mercy and faithfulness to His covenant.

God loved Israel as His firstborn son among the nations (see Exodus 4:22). Through Israel—heirs of His covenant with Abraham—God planned to reveal himself as the Father of all nations (see Genesis 22:18).

The memory of God's covenant testing of Abraham—and Abraham's faithful obedience—lies behind today's Gospel.

In commanding Abraham to offer his only beloved son (see Genesis 22:2, 12, 16), God was preparing us for the fullest possible revelation of His love for the world.

As Abraham was willing to offer Isaac, God did not spare His own Son but handed Him over for us all (see Romans 8:32).

In this, He revealed what was only disclosed partially to Moses—that His kindness continues for a thousand generations, that He forgives our sin, and takes us back as His very own people (see Deuteronomy 4:20; 9:29).

Jesus humbled himself to die in obedience to God's will. And for this, the Spirit of God raised Him from the dead (see Romans 8:11), and gave Him a name above every name (see Philippians 2:8-10). This is the name we glorify in today's Responsorial—the name of our Lord, the God who is Love (see 1 John 4:8, 16).
