Dear People of God,

I cannot say this enough. It is so good to gather with you again and celebrate Mass.

We would love for you to come. If you do come please follow the guidelines posted around the church.

If you are hesitant, just remember that the dispensation from the obligation to go to Sunday Mass remains in effect.

Today in the Gospel, Jesus says, "Fear no one."

There are many things we are afraid of...some of them we should be afraid of. We should be afraid to walk across a rope 50 feet above the ground.

But here in the Gospel, Jesus says to not be afraid of anyone. He goes on to say that we must not be afraid of those who can kill the body, but not the soul.

Bodily pain is not a good things. It is natural to avoid pain. However, there is a greater pain that physical pain. And that is the pain of being separated from God. We may not feel the pain of being separated from God until we reach hell, but we will experience it sooner or later if we continue to try and live without God in our lives.

What people, things, in our lives are separating us from God? Are there friendships or things that we need to let go of?

Ultimately, we have nothing to fear in God. God loves us and wants what is best for us. If we stay close to Him, He will give us what we need.

Take care and God bless,

Father Vogel
