Feast of the Ascension of the Lord

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned.

These signs will accompany those who believe:

in my name they will drive out demons,

they will speak new languages.

They will pick up serpents with their hands,

and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them.

They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

-Mark 16:16-18

Happy Mother's Day!!!

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of pro-

From the Pastor's Desk

Today's gospel describes how Jesus ascended to heaven after giving his final blessing and missionary command to his disciples and to all believers: "Go out to the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." To be a Christian is to be a proclaimer and an evangelizer. There is a difference between preaching and proclaiming. "We preach with words but we proclaim with our lives." As we celebrate the Lord's return to His Father in heaven – His Ascension -- we are being commissioned to go forth and proclaim the Gospel of life and love, of hope and peace, by the witness of our lives. Let's never forget that our example and the witness of our lives might be the only bible others will ever read.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash
