23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people."

- Matthew 4:23

"Jesus put his fingers into the man's ears. Then he spit and touched the man's tongue. He looked up to heaven and with a deep sigh said to him, 'Ephphatha!' ('Be opened!')." ~ Mark 7:33-34

Mark your calendars!

Magnificat 2018 is set for December 2nd,
the first Sunday of Advent.

Please plan on attending this moving event where we can encounter and experience the presence of our Lord!!!

From the Pastor's Desk

The central theme of today's readings is an invitation to us to become humble instruments of healing in Jesus' hands by giving voice to the voiceless and caring love to the needy and the marginalized in our society. Today's Gospel describes how Jesus, by healing a deaf and mute man, fulfills Isaiah's Messianic prophecy, "The eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped." The ailments listed by Isaiah are symbolic of our interior illnesses: blindness to the needs of our neighbor, unwillingness to hear God's voice and the inability to speak words of praise and gratitude. Through this miracle story, Mark also reminds us that no one can be a follower of the Lord without reaching out to the helpless.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Please note this program is intended to offer our parish a more coordinated scheduling for all ministries, and the primary means by which it does so is by allowing users to input personal scheduling preferences via web-based accounts. Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary

Time: In today's Gospel we hear how Jesus "makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!" In living the gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God's presence known especially to those who are poor and suffering. On September 9, the Church also celebrates the feast of Blessed Frederic Ozanam, the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Frederic heard the call of Jesus to love and serve those who are suffering. Join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can "make God's presence known" to those who are suffering.
