If you're free at that time, be sure to stop by for a treat and meet the team! Special guests will include Fr. Kovash and Sister Brenda. One of our students will also begin the show with a prayer! From the Pastor's Desk

From a stretch of level ground, Jesus levels so many of our preconceptions. He declares blessed the poor, the hungry, the weeping, the hated – all whose hearts cry out in longing and expectation for what can only be satisfied by God. Blessed are those who trust not in themselves, but in the Lord. Hope rests on a fact: Christ has been raised from the dead (Magnificat). This world is filled with uncertainty and many trials. But let us not forget that Jesus has overcome the world. Let us be strong in faith and stay united to Jesus.....a great reward awaits us....let us persevere!!!

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

In this article we profess belief in what we call the four marks of the Church. As the Catechism teaches us "[t]hese four characteristics, inseparably linked with each other, indicate essential features of the Church and her mission." I will treat each one individually.

First we profess that the Church is one. Specifically this refers to the unity of the Church. The Church is unified first because of her divine founder. Jesus founded a single Church (As he said to Peter, "I call you Peter and upon this rock, I will build my Church. (Matthew 16:18). What exactly does this word "Church" mean? "Church" is a translation of the Greek word "ecclesia" which means "assembly." Therefore, the Church is the "assembly" of God. It stands to reason, then, that all believers must be united into one "assembly." There is a concept of the Christian faith that professes that as long as the individual believes in Christ in his heart, then "going to Church" is unnecessary. This is contrary to the will of Christ who willed that all those who believe in him would be gathered into one community.

How do we know, then that we are part of the true Church of Christ? The Church identifies three visible bonds of unity: the profession of faith received from the Apostles, common celebration of divine worship, especially the sacraments, and apostolic succession through the sacrament of Holy Orders (this last one regards the fact that the bishops are successors of the Apostles, and the tangible sign that you are unified with the Church in unity with the local bishop and with the pope).

That said there are three sins against unity: heresy, schism, and apostasy. Heresy is the denial of something that is divinely revealed. For example: to deny that Jesus is God or that Mary was conceived without original sin are heresies. Such denials wound unity because they attack the faith that unifies us (the history of the Church shows that heretics regularly divide Christians as a matter of course).

Those who are in schism generally profess the same faith as the Church but refuse to submit to legitimate ecclesiastical authority. Usually this takes the form of a refusal to acknowledge the authority of the pope. The best known case of schism is the Orthodox Church. The Orthodox Church professes our same faith (and even has valid sacraments) but do not recognize the pope's authority (they've been in schism since 1054).

Finally, apostasy is the formal renunciation of the Catholic faith. These three sins, sadly, are all too common in the world today. Let us, then, profess our faith boldly and submit to the yoke of the Church that Christ founded so that we may fulfill that which he himself prayed for: "that they may be one" (John 17:22).

By Mrs. Julie Quamme

Enrollment for parish members is now open! If your children are not currently enrolled in St. Joseph's Catholic School, we invite you to consider enrolling them for the upcoming school year. St. Joseph's School nurtures integrity, achievement, respect, generosity and life in Christ, while at the same time offering an affordable, secure, and joyful alternative to public education. We provide a nurturing environment along with a challenging program that focuses on the total child, (mind, spirit, soul). Please call 701-572-6384 if you would like additional information. If you are interested in enrolling please go to the website: www.stjschoolwilliston.com.

Our enrollment is growing! St. Joseph's is looking for a second Kindergarten teacher for the 2019-2020 school year. Please contact Julie Quamme at 701-572-6384 or Julie.quamme@k12.nd.us for more information or to apply for the position.

St. Joseph's will be participating in the Williams County Spelling Bee on Wednesday, Feb. 20th at Bakken Elementary beginning at 3:30. The classroom winners are as follows: 1st grade: Ethan Madison; 2nd grade: Ronald Anderson; 3rd grade: Misrach Kitzen; 4th grade: Maddie Hoffman; 5th grade: Karen Hoffman; 6th grade: Elias Vournas. Congratulations to our students!

St. Joseph's School Board will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 4:30 in the Conference Room.

St. Joseph's School will be closed on Monday, February 18 in observance of President's Day!

Spring Break is coming March 4-8th! We certainly hope that Spring Break brings us warmer weather.

Winter is here! Please remind your child to bring their "Fab 5" (coat, hat, gloves, snow pants, and snow boots) each and every day! When the air temperature or wind chill factor is -10 or colder the students stay indoors for recess. It is still a good idea to wear the Fab 5 to school regardless!

Before and Afterschool pick-up has been going well this year! As a reminder, please refrain from parking in the handicap spots. These spots are made available to ensure equal and ample accessibility options for those with disabilities. Although you may only be parked there for a quick minute while picking up or dropping off your child, you are taking a parking space for someone in need.

On Friday mornings, all families are invited to join us for Children's Mass at 9:00. Moms in Prayer is held each Friday at 8:20 in O'Neill Hall. Moms in Prayer is led by Priscilla Keck and Kristal Schmit. All moms who have children enrolled at St. Joseph's are invited to attend.
