From the Pastor's Desk

The readings today are linked together by one main theme: the power of Christian love. What makes Christianity distinct from any other religion is the quality known as grace, i.e., God's own life working in us, so that we are able to treat others, not as they deserve, not naturally, but supernaturally with love, kindness and mercy. God is good to the unjust as well as to the just. Hence, our love for others, even those who are ungrateful and selfish towards us, must be marked by the same kindness and mercy which God has shown to us. His love conquers our hurts, fears, prejudices and grief. Only the cross of Jesus Christ can free us from the tyranny of malice, hatred, revenge, and resentment, and give us the courage to return good for evil.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

How Will You Leave a Legacy?
 Imagine how much good could be done if each one of us remembered our parish and our schools in our will or estate plan? The impact would be immeasurable. For more information please call Fr. Kovash.

Quotation

of the week

~ From the daily devotional,
God Calling

"The world does not need supermen, but supernatural men. Men who will persistently turn the self out of their lives and let the Divine power work through them."

OPERATION RICE BOWL is the official Lenten program of Catholic Relief Services'. Each Lent, parishes, school and other faith communities participate in Operation Rice Bowl to learn more about the work of CRS and put their faith into action. All three of our parishes will have Rice Bowls available on Wednesday March 6th. Please feel free to pick one up and drop it off by Holy Thursday April 21st.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS will be having a monthly meeting on Monday the 11th of March in O'Neill Hall following the 7:00 PM Mass.

ADORATION DURING LENT? During Lent we often hear the suggestion that we deepen our relationship with Jesus by visiting the Blessed Sacrament. "But what are we supposed to do when we visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament," you may wonder. The thought of going into a quiet church to sit in silence for an hour, which is customary for the scheduled shifts of Perpetual Adoration, can be intimidating. Even five or ten minutes of sitting still and being "unproductive," and "un-entertained," can be overwhelming to the rushed, busy, distracted human being of our day. Walking into a church where the Eucharist is exposed is like coming out of the noise and bustle of life as we usually experience it, and stepping into another world. Even if you can still hear cars going by outside or people talking on the sidewalk, there is a kind of silence here that is like a quiet heart. Here is a reverent, sacred silence. Yet it is a friendly, nurturing silence that is not intimidating. It is peaceful.

There are other people there, some kneeling, one or two reading, some praying the rosary. There is usually at least one person sitting very still, lost in obviously deep prayer. Occasionally you might see someone writing. Whatever we are doing, we are all here for one thing. If you are here very long you will notice each person look up now and then or gaze toward the altar with a look of comfortable, simple love. We are here to gaze at Christ, and love Him. Think about signing up for an hour each week during Lent to pray before the Blessed Sacrament during Adoration schedule. For more information call the parish office at 572-6731.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

Last week I addressed the fact that the Church is one. This week I would like to address the second mark of the Church, namely, that the Church is holy. Vatican II teaches us that “the Church...is held, as a matter of faith, to be unfailingly holy.” We might ask ourselves, “How can this be? Isn’t the Church made up of sinners? Even egregious sinners?” Certainly. How, then, can we believe that the Church is “unfailingly holy”? Vatican II teaches us: “This is because, Christ, the Son of God, who with the Father and the Spirit is hailed as ‘alone holy,’ loved the Church as his Bride, giving himself up for her so as to sanctify her; he joined her to himself as his body and endowed her with the gift of the Holy Spirit for the glory of God.” So, we see here that Jesus has given himself up for the Church and united himself to her and gave her the Holy Spirit so that she would be holy.

Furthermore, the Church, sanctified by Christ, becomes sanctifying through him and with him (CCC 824). It is through the Church that sinners are sanctified! As for the presence of sinners in the Church (including the clergy), I cannot put it better than the Catechism: “‘Christ, “holy, innocent, and undefiled,” knew nothing of sin, but came only to expiate the sins of the people. The Church, however, clasping sinners to her bosom, at once holy and always in need of purification, follows constantly the path of penance and renewal.’ All members of the Church, including her ministers, must acknowledge that they are sinners. In everyone, the weeds of sin will still be mixed with the good wheat of the Gospel until the end of time. Hence the Church gathers sinners already caught up in Christ’s salvation but still on the way to holiness: ‘The Church is therefore holy, though having sinners in her midst, because she herself has no other life but the life of grace. If they live her life, her members are sanctified; if they move away from her life, they fall into sins and disorders that prevent the radiation of her sanctity. This is why she suffers and does penance for those offenses, of which she has the power to free her children through the blood of Christ and the gift of the Holy Spirit’” (Pope Paul VI).

Therefore, we fully acknowledge the presence of sinners in the Church (including the clergy) while still confessing that the Church is holy, for the Church is made holy by her Bridegroom, Jesus, and therefore sanctifies sinners. When we sin we defile ourselves and refuse the sanctification that Christ offers through his Church. But this is no cause for despair, for the means of sanctification are always open to us.

In Christ, Fr. Greg.
