Remembrance Mass of Blessed Oscar Romero

A Mass in remembrance of Blessed Óscar Romero will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, August 15, the Feast of the Assumption, at the Cathedral Shrine of the Virgin of Guadalupe in downtown Dallas. Bishop Edward J. Burns will preside as the main celebrant. A Salvadoran themed reception will follow the Mass in the Cathedral Gran Salon. Blessed Romero, the former Archbishop of San Salvador in the Central American country of El Salvador, was assassinated at the altar as he celebrated Mass in 1980. The then-archbishop had been outspoken in his criticism of the corrupt Salvadoran government at the time and his support of the poor. The Mass will be celebrated on what would have been his 100th birthday. Blessed Romero was beatified in 2015 and while no date for his canonization has been set, those promoting his cause for sainthood say they hope the announcement if not the actual canonization might occur during this centenary year.
