The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day) 2021

The past year has been one filled with grief for so many. Natural disasters, violence, and especially the COVID pandemic have taken so many before their time, ending lives filled with promise and leaving behind grief and mourning. We have also witnessed the generous hearts accompanying those struggling.

During the month of November let us remember in prayer all of our deceased, let us especially remember and pray for our deceased members of our families, our friends and our neighbors.

Bishop Edward J. Burns invites you to be a part of a historic and exciting time for the local and universal Church

As the Diocese of Dallas is set to begin a multi-year synod process, we have been called by Pope Francis to join dioceses throughout the world in participating in a Synod of Bishops to address the fundamentals of synodality itself. Answering that call, Bishop Edward J. Burns welcomes the faithful to join the Diocese of Dallas in prayerful discernment during a series of synodal catechetical sessions that will be vital in helping chart the course for both the local and universal Church. These catechetical sessions seek to help the faithful of the diocese better understand the diocesan synod itself, their role in it, and address the questions that have been presented by the Holy Father for his synod on synodality.

Be a part of this exciting journey of faith by registering online for the first of four catechetical sessions at www.cathdal.org/synod-cs

Full schedule of the catechetical sessions:

- Tuesday, November 30, 2021 from 6:30 – 8:30 PM
Our Lady of the Lake, Rockwall
- Saturday, January 8, 2022 from 10 – 12 PM
St. Joseph Waxahachie
- Tuesday, January 11, 2022 from 6:30 – 8:30 PM
Mary Immaculate, Farmers Branch
- Thursday, January 20, 2022 from 6:30 – 8:30 PM
St. Jude Allen

Later on, there will be also a catechetical session held at our Immaculate Conception Catholic Parish.

Requirement to return to Mass postponed in the Diocese of Dallas

In light of the recent surge in COVID cases and concern about the spread of the Delta variant, Bishop Edward Burns has postponed reinstating the requirement for Catholics to attend Mass in person in the Diocese of Dallas. The dispensation which waived this requirement had been scheduled to end on Sunday, August 15, 2021. Masses will continue to take place; however, the obligation to attend remains lifted. According to Bishop Burns the decision will be reviewed frequently as more information becomes available. “This decision has not been made lightly as we all desire to get beyond the ongoing effects of this pandemic. We will continue to monitor this situation closely and as soon as we are safely able to do so, we will get back to normal.” Bishop Burns went on to remind those who decide to attend Mass in-person that masks are expected to be worn, especially in Dallas County, but parishes will not single out or draw attention to those who are not wearing masks at Mass.

Diocese of Dallas Televised Mass

Due to a scheduling conflict, the Televised Spanish Mass set for Sundays will be moved from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. Univision 23. Please be advised that this will be the new air time for the Spanish language Televised Mass moving forward until further notice.
