From Pastor's Desk: Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2019.

Reflection: Luke 12; 49-53: Jesus says: I have come to divide.

Jesus reminds us that responding as a Christian sometimes stirs up anger and resentment in family and friends. While peace will come with the kingdom of God, doing the will of God may cause rifts among loved ones. Those that are closest to us will sometimes disagree on the necessity of following the path of righteousness. They may desire to take an easier way and want us to do so also. At such times, we need to be sure to find our peace in God, not in humankind. God will always be our refuge and aid. Pray for the will and guidance to persevere in living the life to which God calls you.

All-powerful God, you share your light of truth and passionately call us to transform our world. Guide our efforts to live our faith zealously. Protect and comfort us today as we work to bring your kingdom to completion.

Del escritorio del Pastor: Vigésimo Domingo de tiempo ordinario 2019.

Reflexión: Lucas 132; 49-53: Jesús dice: he venido a dividir.

Jesús nos recuerda que responder como Cristiano a veces suscita cólera y resentimiento entre la familia y amigos. Mientras que la paz vendrá con el Reino de Dios, hacer la voluntad de Dios puede provocar divisiones entre los seres queridos. Los que están más cerca a nosotros a veces no están de acuerdo sobre la necesidad de seguir el camino de la rectitud. Pueden desear tomar una forma más fácil y quieren que nosotros hagamos lo mismo. En tales momentos, necesitamos sin duda encontrar nuestra paz en Dios, no en la humanidad. Dios será siempre nuestro refugio y ayuda. Oremos por la voluntad y dirección para perseverar en vivir la vida a la cual Dios nos ha llamado.

Dios Todopoderoso, compartes tu luz de la verdad y con pasión nos llamas para transformar nuestro mundo. Guía nuestros esfuerzos para vivir nuestra fe con afán. Protege y confórtanos hoy mientras trabajamos para traer tu reino a su realización.
