From Pastor's Desk: – Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 2019

Reflection: Luke 14, 1, 7-14: Jesus presents his own version of table manners.

"Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

It is good for us to reflect on our humility. Those who are humble are aware of their relationship with God and others. They do not pretend to be greater than or less than another. Truly great leaders know that they are in relationship with those they serve. When Jesus washed the feet of the Apostles, he taught them that servant leaders humble themselves. Whom do you need to assist today? How will that help another see God in their midst? As we listen to Jesus tell a parable about invitations to a banquet while he himself is a guest at a dinner, let us consider our hospitality toward others. Jesus tries to teach humility to Pharisees in the Gospel. It begets generosity, as it recognizes the value in our neighbor, especially those who are put down. True generosity is shown when giving to those who cannot repay.

Lord God, make a place and home for all. May we serve you and your people, making known the message of your love and compassion? Guide our efforts at building your kingdom. Teach us the ways of your reign and guide us toward a communion of love.

Del escritorio del Pastor: - Vigésimo Segundo Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

Reflexión: Lucas 14, 1, 7-14: Jesús presenta su propia versión de los modales en la mesa. Es bueno para nosotros reflexionar sobre nuestra humildad. Los que son humildes son conscientes de su relación con Dios y con los demás. No pretenden ser mayores o menores que otros. Los líderes verdaderamente grandes saben que están en relación con aquellos a quienes sirven. Cuando Jesús lavó los pies de los Apóstoles, les enseñó que los líderes de servicio se humillaban. ¿A quién necesitas ayudar hoy? ¿Cómo ayudará eso a otro a ver a Dios en medio de ellos? Mientras escuchamos a Jesús contar una parábola sobre invitaciones a un banquete mientras él mismo es un invitado a una cena, consideremos nuestra hospitalidad hacia los demás. Jesús trata de enseñar humildad a los fariseos en el Evangelio. Engendra generosidad, ya que reconoce el valor en nuestro prójimo, especialmente aquellos que son despreciados. La verdadera generosidad se muestra cuando se da a quienes no pueden pagar. Señor Dios, haz un lugar y un hogar para todos. ¿Podemos servirle a usted y a su gente, dando a conocer el mensaje de su amor y compasión? Guíe nuestros esfuerzos para construir su reino. Enséñanos los caminos de tu reinado y guíanos hacia una comunión de amor.
