Reflection: Luke 21:5-19: When will the end of the world arrive?

Not long before Jesus is handed over to his passion and death, he tells his followers what they will face. They will be betrayed by relatives and will face rulers. They are not to worry about their defense, for God will give them the words. This reading brings to mind the Beatitude in Luke "Blessed are you when people hate you... Behold, your reward will be great in heaven." St. Luke urges us to put our heads down, work hard, mind our business, and persevere through trial and tribulation. Yet true joy, born of hope in Christ, transcends circumstance, and transforms our encounters, so we can live in gratitude and joy no matter what life brings. As we experience natural disasters, deceptions, and persecution, the virtue that should be the hallmark of our lives is perseverance. Trust in the Lord's guidance and protection. Faithful Lord, you promise us eternal life. Grant that we may always know that you are at our side when we speak out in your name. May we be free from anxiety and fear as we place our trust in you,

Desde el escritorio del pastor: Trigésimo-Tercer Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario 2019.

Reflexión: Lucas 21:5-19: ¿Cuándo llegará el fin del mundo?

Poco antes de que Jesús sea entregado a su pasión y muerte, les dice a sus seguidores lo que enfrentarán. Serán traicionados por parientes y se enfrentará a me trae a la mente la Bienaventuranza en Lucas "Bienaventurado eres cuando la gente te odia... He aquí, tu recompensa será grande en el cielo." San Lucas nos insta a bajar la cabeza, trabajar duro, ocuparnos de nuestros asuntos y perseverar a través de la prueba y la tribulación. Sin embargo, es cierto los gobernantes. No deben preocuparse por su defensa, porque Dios les dará las palabras. Esta lectura la alegría, nacida de la esperanza en Cristo, trasciende las circunstancias y transforma nuestros encuentros, para que podamos vivir en gratitud y alegría sin importar lo que la vida traiga. A medida que experimentamos desastres naturales, engaños y persecución, la virtud que debe ser el sello distintivo de nuestras vidas es la perseverancia. Confía en la guía y protección del Señor. Señor fiel, nos prometes la vida eterna. Conceda que siempre sepamos que usted está a nuestro lado cuando hablamos en su nombre. Que estemos libres de ansiedad y miedo mientras depositamos nuestra confianza en ti.
