Church Teaching:

"The Church has traditionally viewed housing, not as a commodity, but as a basic human right. This conviction is grounded in our view of the human person and the responsibility of society to protect the life and dignity of every person by providing the conditions where human life and human dignity are not undermined but enhanced." "We are reminded by the gospel that the first human problem Jesus faced on earth was a lack of shelter. There was 'no room in the inn' for the Holy Family in Bethlehem. Today, we see in the faces of homeless men, women, and children, the face of Christ. We know that in reaching out to them, standing with them defending their rights, in working with them and their families for decent housing, we serve the Lord." USCCB p 9 Homelessness and Housing: A Human Tragedy, A Moral Challenge" March 24, 1988
