*To learn anew the Gospel:
The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

October is Respect for Life Month, and I share with you this statement from Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann, Chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Pro-Life Activities:

“The month of October brings with it our annual observance of Respect Life Month. As part of the Year of St. Joseph declared by Pope Francis, this year's celebration highlights the example of that great saint. As the faithful protector of both Jesus and Mary, we find in St. Joseph a profound reminder of our own call to welcome, safeguard, and defend God's precious gift of human life. Despite the mysterious circumstances surrounding Mary's pregnancy, St. Joseph took her into his home at the word of the angel. He guided their journey to Bethlehem, found shelter, and welcomed the infant Jesus as his son. When Herod threatened the life of the Christ Child, St. Joseph left his homeland behind and fled with Jesus and Mary to Egypt.

Like St. Joseph, we are also called to care for those God has entrusted to us – especially vulnerable mothers and children. We can follow in the footsteps of St. Joseph as protector by advocating against taxpayer-funded abortion, which targets the lives of millions of poor children and their mothers here in the United States. At times, we may feel uncertain of our ability to answer the Lord's call. But He invites us to faithfully respond, despite our own fears or weaknesses: “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness” (2 Cor 12:9). May we imitate St. Joseph's faithful trust and courage as we work to uphold the dignity of every human life. St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!”

I couldn't say it better...

Peace, Dcn. Kerry

The concern of the devil is to keep Christians from praying. He fears nothing from prayer-less studies, prayer-less work, and prayer-less religions. He laughs at our toil, mocks at our wisdom,
but trembles when we pray.

- Samuel Chadwick

Marianist Brother Mel Meyer created the beautiful frescos in our church. His art work can be found in many other places. His presentation of the Last Supper can be found in the Guest House dinning room at Saint Meinrad Archabbey.

The Indiana Catholic Action Network

The Indiana Catholic Action Network (ICAN) is the principal communication network of the Indiana Catholic Conference, informing and updating the faithful on the Church's social teachings and legislative priorities to advance the common good.

The ICAN Reports offer concise legislative insights to members and help connect members to legislators in Indiana. Each weekly report highlights legislation the Indiana Catholic Conference (ICC) is following during the legislative session. Each position is taken after a close examination of the most relevant guidance from the Church's magisterial teachings and guidance from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).
