From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

On PBS, there is a show entitled, "Finding Your Roots," hosted by Henry Louis Gates, Jr. On this show, he researches the family history of various celebrities, often providing them with things they never knew about their fore-bearers. I must admit, it is one of my favorite shows. There are many things I wish I knew about my grandparents. My mother's parents died very young and long before my parents married. My father's father was born ninety-nine years before me. I never really knew my grandparents.

Many of us are now blessed to be grandparents or great aunts or uncles. In this year of the family, Pope Francis has placed a special emphasis on connecting across generations. He has established throughout the Church the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly beginning this year on the fourth Sunday of July, near the memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. That's next Sunday. Why not take a little time this week to research or reminisce about or with our own grandparents? I offer you the following prayer:

God of love, we thank you for our wonderful grandparents. They have brought such joy and happiness into our lives. Thank you for all the special times that we have had with them. Please watch over them, protect them and care for them now. May they know your goodness and love always. Amen

Peace, Dcn. Kerry

OUR ST. ANDREW ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY NEEDS YOUR HELP!

In the past year, our St. Vincent de Paul Chapter has suffered some setbacks, and it’s time to reorganize and rebuild. Our number of volunteers has dropped for many reasons, but the needs of those we serve has remained the same and, in some areas, increased.

Earlier this month, four members of our parish attended a training session and are ready to help, but we need more folks to lend a hand. Our local chapter needs to reorganize and elect officers. So . . . do you have a few hours each week to help? If you do, please contact Dorothy Pipes or Deacon Kerry.

“We put no stumbling block in anyone’s path, so that our ministry will not be discredited.” (2 Corinthians 6:3)

In everything he did, Paul always considered what his actions communicated about Jesus Christ. In the course of each day, non-Christians will observe your behavior. Don’t let careless or undisciplined actions be another person’s excuse for rejecting Christ.
