FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PAVINO

Palm Sunday recalls the triumphant entry of Jesus to Jerusalem. To unbelievers the entry of Jesus to Jerusalem was not victorious. He was arrested, wrongfully accused, tortured and crucified in Jerusalem, and there is nothing triumphant about that, at least to those who cannot see the significance of what Jesus Christ endured.

When Jesus Christ went to Jerusalem people thought that He would establish and restore the Kingdom of Israel. So, they did what the people did during the time of King David. It was King David who made the Kingdom of Israel great and powerful. People thought that Jesus would start a war against the Roman Empire. People were ecstatic and excited that finally they would regain their independence and autonomy. There was shouting and gladness when Jesus was entering Jerusalem. People were singing the song they sung during the time of David: Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest.

What was ironic was the people who were praising and cheering for Jesus were the same people who also shouted and demanded that Jesus must be crucified. This demonstrates that people are narrow minded. People would easily jump on the other side of the fence. When things are not going their way they would grumble, complain and desert you. This kind of people does not have a hold on what is the truth.

We have the truth. We know and understand that the entry of Jesus Christ to Jerusalem was indeed triumphant. We know and believe that his passion and death were part of His salvific action, and that it will lead to His resurrection. It did not end in death rather, it paved the way for the salvation of mankind. Hence, we will remain faithful to Christ. We will be with him in His suffering ... we will be with Him in His death ... and we will be Him in His resurrection.

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life” (The Gospel of Life 86).

PADRE LOAIZA
SEMANA SANTA

La semana santa o semana mayor como es llamada por la religión católica, es un periodo constituido por 7 días el cual comienza al finalizar la cuarentena, específicamente el día del inicio se conoce como “Domingo de Ramos” y culmina el próximo domingo llamado “Domingo de Resurrección”; en esta semana el cristiano hace conmemoración al Triduo Pascual, en otras palabras a las últimas vivencias de Jesús de Nazaret que incluye la pasión, muerte y resurrección del hijo de Dios, Jesucristo. La cuarentena anteriormente mencionada representa los cuarenta días que tuvo Jesús solo en el desierto, teniendo una preparación espiritual y en donde probó ser inmune a las tentaciones del diablo Domingo de Ramos

La entrada de Jesús a Jerusalén. Los cristianos conmemoran con una procesión que representa el recibimiento que le hicieron los lugareños al Hijo de Dios.

Jueves Santo

Es el tiempo de demostrar la humildad y sencillez al prójimo como Jesús lo hizo al lavar los pies a sus discípulos, ya que demostró una actitud de servicio.

En este día los sacerdotes renuevan sus votos de vida para con la Iglesia. También se realiza la bendición de los óleos que se utilizarán en las ceremonias de bautizos, unción de los enfermos y ordenaciones sacerdotales.

Viernes Santo

Recordarse la pasión, muerte de Jesucristo. Los cristianos están de luto; es uno de los días culminantes de la Semana Mayor.

Los fieles se acercan al templo a rezar el Viacrucis, a rezar las Siete Palabras, el Rosario del Pésame y sobre todo, a reflexionar sobre el significado de la muerte de Cristo. Este día no hay misa; es el único día que no se celebra el Sacrificio Eucarístico.

Sábado Santo

Es el segundo día del Triduo Pascual y la Iglesia está en espera junto al sepulcro; no es sábado de gloria, sino Sábado Santo de Luto; también durante la mañana no hay misa. El altar está desnudo hasta después de la Solemne Vigilia Pascual.

Domingo de Resurrección

La fiesta para los cristianos de todo el mundo ha llegado, porque se cumplieron las profecías de que Jesús al tercer día resucitaría. Se renuevan en este día los sacramentos del bautismo y la confirmación.
