“Give thanks to the Lord for He is good,
His love is everlasting.” -- Psalm 118

Today's Readings

First Reading -- The apostles perform many signs and wonders among the people. Many are added to their numbers (Acts 5:12-16).

Psalm -- Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading -- John, caught up in the spirit, envisions the glorified Lord, the first and the last, the one who lives (Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19).

Gospel -- The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

JOINING THE COMPANY OF BELIEVERS

What will help you to believe? Today's scripture readings tell of faith and doubt. They offer stories "recorded to help you believe," as the passage from John's Gospel (20:31) remarks today. There is an urgency about this. On this Second Sunday of Easter we are challenged to join the company of believers--countless men and women who witnessed the power of the apostles' faith. There is no doubt that this power comes from Jesus Christ. The second reading, from the book of Revelation, reports John's mystical vision of the Son of Man, who proclaims, "Once I was dead, but now I live" (Revelation 1:18). The Gospel gathers everyone but Thomas to see the Risen Jesus and receive the Holy Spirit from him. Like Thomas, we who have come along later must have faith so that we can have life. Prayers from EDGE

by the 8th grade boys

Lord,

We the people of the One Holy Church ask for your help for Your Church to become one again. The Church was designed to always be one, but there were those who had different ideas. So many Churches have turned away from the one True Church, the Catholic Church. Lord, guide them all back so that we can once again become one. Amen.
