Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth."

-- Psalm 121

Thank you for attending Mass with us today.

Monsignor Michael Reed, Father Hank Lech and the St. Rose of Lima parish family welcome visitors and new members. If you are not currently a registered member and wish to be, please contact the parish office, or complete the form on the front of this bulletin and drop it in the collection basket.

DEPENDING ON GOD

"Getting by with a little help from our friends" is not an idea that began with the Beatles. Certainly the idea of "getting by with a little help from God" goes back at least to the first reading today from Exodus. How we get that help, however, is the key to this weekend's scriptures. No matter how inadequate Moses felt to the task God had given him, he persevered—even though he needed help from the people around him. The Israelites especially depended on God for freedom. The woman in the Gospel, desperate and destitute, had no one to depend on, but still she would not give up. She could not afford to bribe the unscrupulous judge, but she pestered him into weariness until finally he met her demands. We sometimes need to turn to others to help us through difficult times; but if we always turn to God, we won't be disappointed, for our help, the psalm assures us, is from the Lord. Copyright (c) J. Mission Statement We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church, are a diverse family of believers, living and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ and dedicating ourselves to serving Our Lord and our neighbors through liturgical worship, prayer and outreach.

The RCIA (becoming or inquiring to become Catholic) classes have begun and currently there are 15 participants who are beginning their journey.

We ask our parish to pray for these individuals - as some RCIA participants make great sacrifices during this process and need your prayers. This year, we will be providing you with continuing updates as they progress through the RCIA process. If you wish to journey with a specific participant through the RCIA program in prayer or simply wish to help out the RCIA program from "behind the scenes", please visit our parish website and click on the link "Journey with RCIA" to learn more.

What type of "behind the scenes" things need to be done? Sacrament preparation, prayer partners, sponsorship, food preparation for celebrations and/or classes, photography, and a myriad of other items/tasks.

If you have any questions about RCIA please contact Fr. Hank or John Canning through the RCIA page on our website. Thank you for supporting those who are inquiring about our Catholic faith.

Pensacola Catholic High School

Pensacola Catholic High School is a Diocesan co-educational Catholic secondary school, owned and operated by the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee. It is located in Pensacola, FL and serves the Church of the northwest Florida Panhandle, as well as the southeastern counties of Alabama. Its Mission—"to develop responsible Christian individuals by providing the finest in Catholic education"—is achieved by fostering the diversity and individuality of its students in an environment centered on the core message of Jesus—"Love one another as I have loved you." A strong spirituality built on the School's Core Values--selfless love, commitment to excellence, personal integrity, and commitment to service—is the foundation of the educational experience provided by Catholic High School. Catholic High School will be administering their Placement Test for students who want to register for the 2017-2018 school year. The Placement Test will be given at 8:00 am on Saturday, November 12, 2016, and there is a $15 test fee. Students will need to bring a completed placement test pre-registration form (which is available on the CHS website pensacolachs.org) and two #2 pencils. There will be a make up test for those who cannot make the Saturday test on Tuesday, November 15, at 8:00 a.m.

St. Rose of Lima Ladies Society (DCCW)

St. Rose of Lima Ladies Society is an active group of women. We are Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, lectors, we clean the altar linens, vestments, maintain votive candles, the church and maintain the altar flowers. We assist, host and sponsor receptions throughout the year, such as - St. Rose Feast Day, San Lorenzo Feast Day, Adult Education series, sacramental receptions (RCIA, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion), as well as assist with funeral receptions. Many people think that this is all we do, but our members are just getting started. Watch this space for more information to follow....
