TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER

27

2020

Humbly regard others
as more important than yourselves,
each looking out not
for his own interests,
but also for those of others.

Philippians 2:3-4

Today's Readings

First Reading - When the wicked turn away from their wickedness they have committed and do what is right, they shall surely live (Ezekiel 18:25-28).

Psalm - Remember your mercies, O Lord (Psalm 25).

Second Reading - Consider others as better than yourselves; look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others (Philippians 2:1-11 [1-5]).

Gospel - Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you (Matthew 21:28-32).

Preparing for Mass

Thank you for following social distancing guidelines while in the vestibule, sanctuary and pews. Please do not sit in any pew that has been blocked off.

Parishioners who attend the Saturday 4 pm Mass will be required to wear a mask and are strongly encouraged to use hand sanitizer before entering the Church. This is for those who feel that extra precautions are necessary due to the recent increase in COVID-19 cases in our county.

Masks are not required at all other Masses, however, we encourage you to wear one for the health and safety of others. Masks are available in the vestibule, as well as hand sanitizer from touch free dispensers. Our A/C units have special air purifiers and they are constantly in use.

The Holy Eucharist will be received only in the hand.

FORMED
PICK OF THE WEEK

Powers and Dominions

In all of God's creation we see such splendor, beauty, mystery, and wonder. Within this creation there are beings with intellect and free will: humans and angels. This film explores the spiritual world, that very real but unseen realm: God, the human soul, angels, demons (fallen angels), spiritual warfare, the reality of demonic possession and exorcism, the dangers of the new age movement and the occult, and much more.

The Understanding Father

Jesus is saying something important in today's Gospel. He talks about tax collectors and prostitutes who repented after hearing John the Baptist preach. He must have shocked the priests and elders when he said those prostitutes would enter the kingdom of God before them. After all, his listeners had spent their whole lives being faithful to the Law. Yet Jesus was saying that sinners who repented will enter God's kingdom first. Jesus' point was not so much about final salvation as about our daily choices.

Remember the parable about the two sons. The second son said what his father wanted to hear, with no intention of doing it. The first was honest about not wanting to go to the vineyard, but then decided to do it anyway. I suspect the father of those men knew what each would or would not do.

And whom do we want to imitate? The priests and elders said all the right things about obeying God's laws, but they were more interested in looking important than living a holy life. Are we like that--telling everyone I am a good Christian, going to church every Sunday (or at least on Christmas and Easter), and yet never making any effort to be loving, forgiving, patient, honest, or any of the difficult things that Jesus calls us to be?

The tax collectors and sinners knew that they were unworthy, but they listened to the call to repentance and let God make them worthy. Are we honest enough to look at our lives and repent of our hatred, our selfishness, or whatever keeps us in sin, and then to follow Jesus with our whole heart? We may not always like doing what God asks of us, but God is an understanding Father who can accept our weaknesses and forgive them when we are ready to return to him.

Assistance for Victims of Sexual Abuse

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members, and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults, or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community.

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee has established Victim Assistance Coordinators who are experienced, trained counselors. They can help those who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, or other church personnel. The coordinator for the Pensacola/Ft. Walton area is Dr. Louis M. Makarowski (850) 477-7181. For the Tallahassee/Panama City area contact James Gagnon, MSW, LCSW (850) 877-0205.
