Preparing for Mass

Thank you for following social distancing guidelines while in the vestibule, sanctuary and pews. Please do not sit in any pew that has been blocked off.

Parishioners who attend the Saturday 4 pm Mass will be required to wear a mask and are strongly encouraged to use hand sanitizer before entering the Church. This is for those who feel that extra precautions are necessary due to the recent increase in COVID-19 cases in our county. Masks are not required at all other Masses, however, we encourage you to wear one for the health and safety of others. Masks are available in the vestibule, as well as hand sanitizer from touch free dispensers. Our A/C units have special air purifiers and they are constantly in use.

The Holy Eucharist will be received only in the hand.

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Lectio: Philippians

Lectio: Philippians

Towards the end of his life, under arrest and awaiting trial in Rome, Saint Paul writes a short but powerful letter to the Philippians. At the heart of this letter is Paul's eloquent hymn of Christ's total gift of self, the model for Paul's life. With his words and the example of his life, Paul exhorts the Philippians to have the mind of Christ, to live a life worthy of the Gospel, and, by God's grace, to gain Christ.

In six sessions, Dr. Tim Gray combines insight and practical guidance using the lectio divina disciplines to make the Scriptures come alive in Philippians: Life in Christ.

Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Office of the Bishop

11 North "B" Street Pensacola,

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings in the Lord. Once again, our community has experienced the power and the fury of another major hurricane. Hurricane Sally claimed at least three lives and caused significant damage to properties.

In the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee, many of our structures (church buildings, schools, parish halls, rectories, etc.) have been damaged. Of course, there are trees and limbs down everywhere, and some of these have cut into people's property and homes. As well, the rain and rising water brought extensive flooding.

Thanks be to God, we have a very strong and generous community, as well as insurance. Immediately after the storm (and in some cases, during the storm), neighbors jumped in to help one another. Our diocese and Catholic Charities of Northwest Florida have already assisted thousands of people with food, emergency supplies, and basic necessities. Thank you for any help that you have given or will give in the future for recovery and for rebuilding.

We are all going through so much these days: a pandemic, natural disasters, a very divisive election campaign, etc. These things have a way of beating us down and tempting us to lose faith. But we must always remember: God is with us! Jesus told us that there would be plenty of crosses to carry in this life. We are not alone; however, he is with us at every step of the way on our journey through this "valley of tears." We know how all of this ends: in glory.

Please know that you are in my prayers. We have faced hardship together in the past, and we will undoubtedly go through this again in the future. This is God's Church, and he will make it possible for us to continue to practice our faith, serve one another, and serve him.

God bless you.

Your Brother in Christ,

Most Rev. William A. Wack, CSC
Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Where Are the Grapes?

Jesus' parable is a little different from the one in the first reading. Isaiah has the vineyard under good and faithful care, but still it produces wild grapes. In the Gospel, the vineyard presumably had a good harvest, but the workers refuse to give any of the grapes to the landowner. The question for us is, which parable is about me?

Do I ignore all that God does to help me be a good disciple? Am I too busy to take time to pray or read the Bible? Do I hold onto grudges instead of forgiving and releasing them? Do I only go to church when someone drags me there, or only at Christmas and Easter? (If that were true, I probably would not be reading this bulletin.) Do I decline the invitations to go on a retreat? Am I afraid to share my faith with someone who needs encouragement? If any of these are true, I might be like the vineyard in the first reading, producing no fruit despite all the opportunities God has given me.

Or we may be the other side of the coin. We had our children baptized when they were babies, sent them to the parish school or religion classes. We went to church every Sunday and took them with us. We gave them as good an example as we could, teaching them to love others and be generous with what they have. Yet they grew up and drifted away from the faith. Then we have to remember how patient God is with us, God's people who don't always produce the fruits of faith.

The Gospel is a little more difficult to relate to. The tenants in the parable refer to those who mistreated or killed the prophets sent by God or the people who would have Jesus crucified. Yet the kingdom of God is still being proclaimed in spite of them. God is patient with them. Look what happened to Saul, who persecuted many Christians before he became one himself. In our second reading he tells us to follow his example as he follows Christ. Then, he says, the peace of God will be with us, too (Philippians 4:6-9).

Assistance for Victims of Sexual Abuse

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members, and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults, or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community.

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee has established Victim Assistance Coordinators who are experienced, trained counselors. They can help those who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, or other church personnel. The coordinator for the Pensacola/Ft. Walton area is Dr. Louis M. Makarowski (850) 477-7181. For the Tallahassee/Panama City area contact James Gagnon, MSW, LCSW (850) 877-0205.
