Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE KING SAID TO HIS SERVANTS,
"THE FEAST IS READY, BUT THOSE WHO WERE INVITED WERE NOT WORTHY TO COME.
GO, THEREFORE, INTO THE MAIN ROADS AND INVITE TO THE FEAST WHOMEVER YOU FIND."

Matthew 22:8-9

Today's Readings

First Reading - On this mountain the LORD will make for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines (Isaiah 25:6-10a).

Psalm - I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life (Psalm 23).

Second Reading - God will supply whatever you need (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20).

Gospel - I have prepared my banquet, and everything is ready. Come to the feast! (Matthew 22:1-14 [1-10]).

Preparing for Mass

Thank you for following social distancing guidelines while in the vestibule, sanctuary and pews. Please do not sit in any pew that has been blocked off.

Parishioners who attend the Saturday 4 pm Mass will be required to wear a mask and are strongly encouraged to use hand sanitizer before entering the Church. This is for those who feel that extra precautions are necessary due to the recent increase in COVID-19 cases in our county. Masks are not required at all other Masses, however, we encourage you to wear one for the health and safety of others. Masks are available in the vestibule, as well as hand sanitizer from touch free dispensers. Our A/C units have special air purifiers and they are constantly in use.

The Holy Eucharist will be received only in the hand.

September 25, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I am pleased to call to your attention the wonderful work and mission of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW). It is an honor and a privilege for all of us to be associated with this group of faithful, dedicated, and generous women. From humble beginnings here in the diocese, they have grown to form a community of faith and charity, assisting our efforts to preach the Good News everywhere. This year the national council celebrates 100 years of service and faith!

We will celebrate their achievements by recognizing them in a special way as we observe the month of October 2020 as Council of Catholic Women Month.

At the request of the bishops of the United States, the National Council of Catholic Women was founded in 1920, for the purpose of uniting the efforts of Catholic women's groups. NCCW is an organization representing millions of women, who through diocesan and parish affiliates, support, empower, and educate Catholic women in spirituality, leadership, and service. I continue to invite and encourage all women of our diocese to consider membership in this distinguished organization. By joining your parish affiliation of Catholic Women, you are automatically a member of the Diocesan, State, and National Council of Catholic Women. Your voice then becomes one of many to be heard not only in the diocese but in the state and on the national level as well.

May the women of our diocese be united in purpose, direction and action in religious, educational, legislative, social and economic fields to meet the needs of the times.

With every best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+William A. Wack, CSC

Most Reverend William A. Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Come to the Feast

Why would invited guests refuse to come to a wedding? Free food and drink, music and dancing--what's not to like? By this time, Jesus knew that many of the Jewish leaders would not accept the invitation to follow him. As we know, after the Resurrection the disciples began to spread the good news not only to other Jews, but to anyone who would listen.

One reason the leaders in Israel did not accept Jesus was his association with sinners. They did not understand that God calls sinners to repent and be forgiven. Ordinary people, who knew they were sinners, were attracted by the offer of forgiveness. Many of them repented and came to be baptized. As the parable says, they filled the banquet hall. So what about the man in the parable who came in street clothes? The wedding garment was a symbol of the baptismal gown, the sign of new life in Christ. So this man symbolizes those who "come to the feast" without repenting of their sins.

We can be like that man sometimes. We come to church, arguing with our spouse on the way. We bring our prejudices, lies, anger, and selfishness--with no intention of doing anything about them. We come with the attitude that says, "I'm here, aren't I? That should be good enough." But it's not. By dying for our sins, Jesus calls us to come back to God. So repentance is not just a change of clothing, it is a change of heart. It is our ticket to the banquet, our way of saying, "I know I don't deserve this, but thanks for letting me share the feast."

Assistance for Victims of Sexual Abuse

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members, and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults, or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community.

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee has established Victim Assistance Coordinators who are experienced, trained counselors. They can help those who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, or other church personnel. The coordinator for the Pensacola/Ft. Walton area is Dr. Louis M. Makarowski (850) 477-7181. For the Tallahassee/Panama City area contact James Gagnon, MSW, LCSW (850) 877-0205.
