O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

PSALM 63:2

THIRTY SECOND
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Readings

First Reading - Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

Psalm - My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading - Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 [13-14]).

Gospel - Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matthew 25:1-13).

Remembering Deceased Loved Ones

During the month of November it is our tradition to remember those who have died. You may:

- ◆ Take an All Soul's envelope from the vestibule and write the names of your loved ones on the back. You may include a donation in the envelope if you wish. Drop the envelope in the offertory basket located in the vestibule.

The envelopes will be placed in a basket at the altar.

- ◆ You may enter the names into our Book of Life, which is also located at the altar.

It's that time already! Our annual Christmas festival will be held on Saturday, December 12th from 5 pm to 7 pm. We need your help November 21st at 8am to decorate for the season! We will be cleaning out the booths, hanging Christmas lights, and preparing the stage! We also need volunteers to help the day and night of the festival. There is a sign up sheet at the Welcome desk if you are able to help!

St. Rose Angel Tree

Coming to the Church Vestibule the weekend of November 21 / 22

Be an Angel this Christmas season! Bring hope and joy to those in need! Choose an ornament from the Angel Tree in the vestibule.

The ornaments are color coded: yellow for a child, green for a nursing home resident,
and white for an inmate at the SRC jail.

Return your unwrapped gifts to the church or the parish office by the weekend of December 12th/13th.

Thank you for sharing the Christmas spirit!

Getting to Know You

At the end of today's Gospel, when the foolish virgins return from the quick shop with the oil, they are locked out of the wedding. The groom answers their pleas, not with a question, "Why weren't you ready?" but with the statement, "I don't know you" (Mt 25:12).

That sounds kind of odd, if the bridegroom represents the LORD, because God knows everything and everybody. In Matthew's Gospel, this phrase seems to imply that "because you made no effort to know me, I don't know you." In other words, the oil in the parable stands for knowing the LORD. Or at least making an effort to know him.

So what am I doing to get to know Jesus? One way to know someone is to act like them. Actors who portray a real person try to watch videos of that person to see how they talk, walk, relate to people, what kind of posture they have, how they dress, etc. We can act like Jesus by following his example of care for the poor and the sick, forgiving people who have done wrong, teaching people about God's love, feeding the hungry, and giving God the credit for what we do.

Another way to get to know someone is to talk to them. The more we pray, the more we get close to Jesus. We can praise God for Creation, we can thank God for all the giving (and forgiving!) We can ask for help for those we love and for God's strength in our weakness (2 Cor 12:9). But we don't get to know someone if we do all the talking. Our prayer can include time to be quiet and listen to the LORD. We also listen to God by reading God's words in the Bible. And God can speak to some people in art, song, or poetry. The advice and wisdom of friends and relatives can also be God speaking to us. Hopefully, we can all find ways of getting to know the Lord, so that God can "recognize" us as friends.

Assistance for Victims of Sexual Abuse

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members, and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults, or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee has established Victim Assistance Coordinators who are experienced, trained counselors. They can help those who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, or other church personnel.

The coordinator for the Pensacola/Ft. Walton area is Dr. Louis M. Makarowski (850) 477-7181. For the Tallahassee/Panama City area contact James Gagnon, MSW, LCSW (850) 877-0205.
