Fifth Sunday of Easter

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am sure many of our families these last few weeks have had a whirlwind of activities. With Easter being so late, everything has been pushed closer together which can be overwhelming, and we can become distracted. Very similar to the situation of Martha and Mary in the Gospel of Luke, we can become a Martha and become distracted from what might be more important. I am not saying that we should drop everything, but we do need to just take a moment to stop and appreciate the small moments we have with those around us. It is something that I must remind myself of constantly. Moments like this can remind us to be grateful for all that we have in our lives.

Have a great week!

Fr. Matthew

This weekend will be the last 6:00 pm Mass until the first weekend in August.

As the Mother of God, the Virgin Mary has a unique position among the saints, indeed, among all creatures. She is exalted, yet still one of us.

Redeemed by reason of the merits of her Son and united to Him by a close and indissoluble tie, she is endowed with the high office and dignity of being the Mother of the Son of God, by which account she is also the beloved daughter of the Father and the temple of the Holy Spirit. Because of this gift of sublime grace, she far surpasses all creatures, both in heaven and on earth. At the same time, however, because she belongs to the offspring of Adam, she is one with all those who are to be saved.

Mary embraces God's will and freely chooses to cooperate with God's grace, thereby fulfilling a crucial role in God's plan of salvation. Throughout the centuries, the Church has turned to the Blessed Virgin in order to come closer to Christ. Many forms of piety toward the Mother of God developed that help bring us closer to her Son. In these devotions to Mary, "while the Mother is honored, the Son, through whom all things have their being and in whom it has pleased the Father that all fullness should dwell, is rightly known, loved and glorified and . . . all His commands are observed." The Church honors her as the Mother of God, looks to her as a model of perfect discipleship, and asks for her prayers to God on our behalf.
