Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

To all who are visiting this weekend, I welcome you to our parishes especially those coming for our St. Elizabeth Harvest Festival. As of writing this bulletin article, the weather is supposed to be hot but dry! I want to thank in advance all who have helped to make this day possible and worked many days to put everything together. Words cannot express fully my gratitude for your service.

In regards to weather, we know many have been affected recently by tropical systems. One area is the northern Bahamas. The pictures that have been coming from the areas affected by Hurricane Dorian are beyond words. Some parishioners have asked me how we can be of assistance to those in the Bahamas. Here is information that I have received from Fr. Paul Counce, pastor of St. Joseph Cathedral, who is a classmate of the Archbishop of Nassau in the Bahamas. He said direct assistance can be offered directly to his classmate's diocese with checks made payable to "Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Nassau Foundation Inc." and be sent to:

Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Nassau Foundation
c/o 110 Merrick Way #3-B
Coral Gables, FL 33134-5236

He goes on to say that this foundation is a US tax-deductible foundation [IRS Tax ID 11-379-8061].

Finally for this week, we know that the start of harvesting the sugarcane will begin shortly. I know Cora Texas in White Castle begins operations on Monday. Let us offer some time this week to pray for the farmers and their workers, the workers at our local mills, and the truck drivers as they begin their work that it may be safe and productive. I pray that we may be patient when we encounter sugarcane trucks in our daily commute. As I have said before and will say soon during Mass, please be careful on the roads as I don't want to visit anyone in the hospital or have a funeral for anyone trying to pass a sugarcane truck.

Have a blessed week!

Through the Alliance of the Two Hearts,

Fr. Matthew

FORMED[®] THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

Grief makes it hard to feel optimistic about the future. If you have experienced the loss of a spouse, child, family member, or friend, it may seem to you that no one understands the deep hurt and loss that you feel. The stages of grief have no set limits of time. It can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have questions about things that you have never experienced before.

If you need support in facing these challenges and move forward in rebuilding your life, GriefShare may be for you. Ministers for Christ (formerly Stephen Ministry) at St. Elizabeth/St. Jules Parish will be offering a 13-week series of seminars that may help you. GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life. Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements in each meeting:

Video seminar, Support group discussion with focus, Personal study and reflection

We are still taking enrollments and our next group session is on September 25, 2019 at St. Jules Church Hall, Belle Rose, LA

To sign up for GriefShare sessions please call Linda @ 985-513-2202
