Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph & Epiphany of the Lord

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of you! This bulletin article is covering two weekends so I want to make sure to wish you all of the greetings happening around this time. I pray that your celebration this past week of our Lord's birth was a blessed one and hopefully not too stressful. I know many of you gathered with your families these past couple of weeks and it is a family that we celebrate on this first weekend of Christmas. We are reminded this weekend of not who they are individually but also their joys and struggles they had as a family. The Holy Family serves as a model for us in our joys and our struggles. Ask for their intercession for each of your family to be like them in trusting God's will, striving to serve our Lord, and to serve each other as brothers and sisters.

The second weekend after Christmas we celebrate the Epiphany. At least in our Churches, at this time you will see the three wise men/kings now around the Nativity scene reminding of us how far they have traveled and searched for the one true God. I see this as a beautiful example of how the Lord calls all even from afar and the least likely in our minds to him. With that imagery in our minds, we know people are searching to encounter our Lord. Please use this weekend to pray for them to be encouraged when they encounter difficulties, to be open to expanding their minds and hearts to someone greater, and to be open to God's graces.

In last week's bulletin I mentioned about sending cards of encouragement to Fr. Joe Vu while he is on leave. I had the wrong city listed. Here is the correct address: Fr. Joe Vu, c/o Diocese of Baton Rouge, P.O. Box 2028, Baton Rouge, LA 70821-2028.

Finally, I will be leaving on a pilgrimage on Monday, December 30th. Please pray for me during this time to be open to God's graces, to recharge, and to be open to whatever he wants to show me. I will be praying for all of you as well. As for Masses, there will be no daily Mass on the following days: Monday, December 30th; Friday, January 3rd; Monday, January 6th; and Tuesday, January 7th.

Through the Alliance of the Two Hearts,
Fr. Matthew
