MASS INTENTIONS:

Every Family Needs to offer a Mass at Least Once a Year.
Teach your Children about Mass intentions.

When we ask a priest to offer a Mass for a particular purpose it is called a "Mass Intention." Along with that intention, a stipend, or a sacrificial offering is made to the priest. In the Diocese of Baton Rouge the offering goes to the parish, and not to the priest, unlike other dioceses. Offering a Mass intention is seen in St. Augustine's Confessions (c. 397), where Monica asks Augustine, "One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord."

Canon Law confirms this practice and states, "In accord with the approved practice of the Church, any priest celebrating or concelebrating is permitted to receive an offering to apply the Mass for a specific intention" (Can. 945 §1).

Furthermore: "The Christian faithful who give an offering to apply the Mass for their intention contribute to the good of the Church and by that offering share its concern to support its ministers and works" (945 §2).

What this refers to is a longstanding practice in the Church of offering a specified amount of money to the Church for a particular intention offered by the priest. Upon hearing this practice, many people might be tempted to think it is "simony," the selling of sacred things for money. However, the Baltimore Catechism explains, "It is not simony, or the buying of a sacred thing, to offer the priest money for saying Mass for our intention, because the priest does not take the money for the Mass itself, but for the purpose of supplying the things necessary for Mass and for his own support." need to offer a Mass at least once a year for the deceased members of the family. You need to inculcate this in the minds of your children. If you do it now, your children will remember to offer a Mass for you once you leave this earth.

We can also offer a Mass for the birthday of our parents, ourselves and our children. Encourage children and grandchildren to go Mass on their birthdays to thank God for the gift of life.

We need to offer Masses as thanksgiving for a special blessing received. We need to be grateful to the Lord for the blessings we received.

Other occasions we can offer a Mass include special milestones in our loved ones' lives, such as wedding anniversaries and graduation ceremonies.

May His Name be Glorified,

Fr. Tomí

"Surviving the Holidays"

The holiday season will be upon us soon. This maybe the first holiday after your loved one's death, the second, third or beyond. It can be a time when difficult emotions of grief hit even harder. You can lessen the emotional impact by knowing what to expect and being prepared.

The St. Elizabeth/Jules Catholic Church Parish is offering through its Ministers for Christ GriefShare Program a session on "Surviving the Holidays". This program can provide you with the tools that will enable you not only to survive the coming holidays, but also face them with a measure of peace and assurance.

"Surviving the Holidays" is a one-time program that will be offered on Saturday, November 7, 2020 at St. Jules Church Hall located at 7161 LA 1, Belle Rose. LA 70341. The session will begin at 10 AM. Social distancing guidelines will be enforced as well as the wearing of a mask.

To register, please call the rectory at 225-473-8569. Registration is not required but encouraged.
