Praying for the Deceased Souls - Vatican Latest Decree

This year, due to the current contingencies due to the "covid-19" pandemic, the Plenary Indulgences for the deceased faithful will be extended throughout the month of November, adapting the works and conditions to ensure the safety of all.

a. The plenary indulgence for those visiting a cemetery and praying for the deceased, if only in spirit, usually established only in the days of November 1-8, can be transferred to other days of the same month until its term.

b. The plenary indulgence of November 2, established on the occasion of the Commemoration of all the faithful deceased for those who piously visit a church and recite the "Our Father" and the "Creed" in this place, can be transferred not only on the previous Sunday or on the solemnity of All Saints' Day, but also on another day in November, at the free choice of the individual faithful.

The elderly, the sick and those who for serious reasons cannot leave their homes, for example due to restrictions imposed by the competent authorities during the time of the pandemic, to prevent the large numbers of the faithful from gathering in the sacred places, will be able to obtain the plenary indulgence if, uniting spiritually with all the other faithful, entirely detached from sin and with the intention of obeying as soon as possible the three usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer according to the intentions of the Holy Father), in front of an image of Jesus or of the Blessed Virgin Mary, they recite pious prayers for the deceased, for example Lauds and Vespers of the Office for the Dead, the Marian Rosary, the Rosary at the Divine Mercy, other prayers for the dead, dearer to the faithful, or if they devote themselves to the meditative reading of one of the Gospel passages proposed by the liturgy for the deceased, or they perform a work of mercy by offering God the pains and the difficulties in their own life.

Finally, given that the souls in Purgatory are helped by the prayers of intention of the faithful and in particular by the sacrifice of the Altar pleasing to God (cf. Conc. Tr. Sess. XXV, dec. De Purgatorio), all priests are strongly invited to celebrate Mass three times on the day of the Commemoration of all the faithful deceased, in accordance with the Apostolic Constitution "Incrumentum Altaris", promulgated by Pope Benedict XV, of venerable memory, on August 10, 1915.

This Decree is valid throughout the month of November. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary. Given in Rome, at the headquarters of the Apostolic Penitentiary, on October 22, 2020, memory of Saint John Paul II.
