Twenty-Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

Rosary and the Apostles' Creed

The Apostles' Creed is the first prayer that we say when we begin praying the rosary. Reciting the Apostles' creed is very important because it is the profession of the Christian faith handed down from the Apostles via the Holy Spirit to the Church, and as such it is to be guarded and continually handed down to future generations.

According to Church tradition, the Apostles' Creed was formulated by the 12 Apostles on the day of Pentecost. With so many people converting to the Christian faith, the Holy Spirit (who Jesus promised would guide the Apostles into all truth, John 16:13) saw it necessary that there be a common profession of the faith, or creed, to unite the Church.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Apostles' Creed is the oldest Roman catechism and carries its authority from the chair of the foremost apostle, Peter (CCC, 194). The Apostles' Creed is also Trinitarian, beginning with the first Person of the Trinity, God the Father, moving to the redemption of mankind through the second Person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ, and then to the work of the third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. Therefore the Apostles' Creed is also a baptismal seal: the profession of faith to which we are entrusted on the day of our baptism (CCC, 197).

Praying the Apostles' Creed is in itself an act of faith; it also increases and strengthens it. According to St. Thomas Aquinas, "The first thing that is necessary for every Christian is faith, without which no one is truly called a faithful Christian." The Apostles' Creed tells us the substance of our faith, that to which we are committed.

Novena to St. Joseph Starting on October 11 to December 6

In order to celebrate the Year of St. Joseph we plan on having a 9 Mondays Novena starting on Monday, October 11th to Monday, December 6th. St. Joseph is the patron saint of the universal Church as well as the head of each catholic family. At the end of the 9 weeks Novena on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the end of Year to St. Joseph on December 8, 2021, we as a parish family will consecrate each family to St. Joseph. Every family will be given a framed picture of St. Joseph with a prayer. I would encourage every one of the families to take part of this Novena.

Adoration: 5 PM, Mass: 6.00 PM, Novena : 6.30 PM
