Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Origin and Explanation of the Memorare Prayer

The Memorare to the Blessed Virgin Mary ("Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary") is one of the best known of all Marian prayers.

Origin

The Memorare is frequently ascribed to Saint Bernard of Clairvaux, a famous monk of the 12th century who had a great devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

By the early 16th century, Catholics had begun to treat the Memorare as a separate prayer. St. Francis de Sales, bishop of Geneva in the early 17th century, was very devoted to the Memorare, and Fr. Claude Bernard, a 17th-century French priest who ministered to the imprisoned and those condemned to death, was a zealous advocate of the prayer. Father Bernard attributed the conversion of many criminals to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, invoked through the Memorare.

The Prayer

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

An Explanation

The Memorare is often described as a "powerful" prayer, meaning that those who pray it have their prayers answered. Sometimes, though, people misunderstand the text, and think of the prayer as essentially miraculous. The words "never was it known that any one... was left unaided" does not mean that the requests that we make while praying the Memorare will be automatically granted, or granted in the way we desire them to be. As with any prayer, when we humbly seek the aid of the Blessed Virgin Mary through the Memorare, we will receive that aid, but it may take a very different form from what we desire.

In order not to throw away missalettes every year I plan to buy the three-year liturgical cycle readings and hymns hardbound book for our parish. This book is meant to be used for many years. There are two advantages; stop wasting papers and save money. This means you will not be able to take these copies home. If you would like to have a copy of the missalette for yourself, please buy one from the office. The cost is $ 25.

I welcome parishioners to memorialize / sponsor each copy of the missalette for the church by paying $ 25.00. You can memorialize as many copies as you want to
