

Lesson 16 “What Does it Mean to Say I Do?”

Complete the work in the book, then answer 1 question fully in each segment

Segment 1: What is Marriage?

1. Do you know of a married couple with the kind of marriage you would like to have some day? What is it about their relationship that stands out to you?
2. What did you think about the idea of a groom wearing black to represent “dying to self”? What does sacrificial love in marriage mean to you?

Segment 2: Tough Questions

1. Why do you think it is so important that marriage is permanent, that it binds a husband and wife together for life?
2. Do you know anyone who has received an annulment? What is the difference between an annulment and a divorce?

Segment 3: Free. Total. Faithful. Fruitful.

1. In light of love being free, total, faithful, and fruitful, what are some ways you can start to love your future spouse now?
2. What qualities would you look for in a potential spouse?
3. Why is it important to make God part of any dating relationship? How can you do this?
