

Title: Grade 6 - Unit 6 Chapter 17

Student Name:

Class:

Date:

1. The vow of _____ that those in religious life take commits them to living a celibate life.
 - a. poverty
 - b. chastity
 - c. obedience
 - d. humility

2. Permanent deacons are ordained ministers who always serve the diocese and parish by _____.
 - a. acting as business managers
 - b. singing in the parish choirs
 - c. assisting in liturgical roles and doing works of charity
 - d. cleaning the sacristy

3. The Pope and the bishops of the world share in _____, the teaching office of the Church.
 - a. stewardship
 - b. anointing
 - c. the Magisterium
 - d. ordination

4. When you are older, you may feel that God has given you a vocation to religious life, or to a vocation _____.
 - a. in law enforcement
 - b. to marriage or the committed single life
 - c. in politics
 - d. in teaching

5. "You will never _____," objected Saint Peter when he saw Jesus humbling himself with a servant's job at the Last Supper.
 - a. wash my feet
 - b. be killed by the Romans
 - c. be a carpenter again
 - d. serve me

6. The Magisterium has the special authority to interpret the _____ found in Scripture and Tradition.
- parables of Jesus
 - Commandments
 - Word of God
 - Beatitudes
7. Saint Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuit order, longed to serve God after _____.
- hearing a missionary talk about his work
 - reading a book about the life of Christ
 - his Confirmation as a young man
 - he learned to read
8. Jesus said that when we give hungry, thirsty, or lonely people what they need, _____.
- we are really giving to him
 - we will be repaid someday
 - other people will praise and admire us
 - we don't have to do anything more
9. Those who take the evangelical counsel or vow of poverty agree to _____.
- beg for all of their income
 - give up owning a car, house, and extra clothes
 - live a simple life and share material possessions with their communities
 - never see their friends again
10. _____ is a state of life lived in community and characterized by the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience.
- Priesthood
 - The diaconate
 - Consecrated religious life
 - Mission
11. A bishop serves as the chief pastor and teacher of his _____ but also works with other bishops and the Pope for the good of the whole Church.
- state
 - diocese
 - region
 - city

12. When Jesus washed the feet of his disciples, he wanted to remind us that _____.
- a. his disciples would have to humble themselves
 - b. it's important to take care of our bodies
 - c. keeping clean is part of holiness
 - d. we cannot walk barefoot
13. Holy Orders is the Sacrament in which a baptized man is _____ to teach the faithful, lead divine worship, and govern the Church.
- a. ordained
 - b. selected
 - c. invited
 - d. ordered
14. _____ is the purpose and plan God has for us and the particular way we answer his call.
- a. A ministry
 - b. An occupation
 - c. A vocation
 - d. A conversion
15. To show how important it was for his followers to serve others, Jesus _____.
- a. carried water from the well
 - b. washed the feet of his disciples
 - c. mended the clothing of his followers
 - d. took the disciples on a journey