Mission Co-Op Collection – August 9/10: Today we welcome Fr. Sebastian with an appeal for the Tamil Nadu Bishops Council in India. Through your prayers and generous financial support missionary activities are carried out in India, constructing small chapels and proclaiming the Gospel, aiding in formation of seminarians, maintaining retired religious, and caring for the orphan female children, who are considered second class citizens, and widows. In this Hindu fundamentalist country, Catholics are persecuted; missionaries have been killed and churches desecrated. There is an urgent need to build a Catholic media office, care homes, hospitals, small chapels, and educational centers for orphans, the blind, and poor female children throughout India. The Catholic Church in India is grateful for the generosity of Americans.

Prayers are requested for... Charles Bratton, Sr., Denise Coffield, Dorothy Colopy, Bill Crawford, Lois Fox, Liza Heffelfinger, Ray Hoffman, Arianna Keegan, Hannah King, Kathy Kosman, Bill Lang, Father Michael Lumpe, Barb Miller, Eileen Miller, Michael Quinn, Mark Rine, Carol Roberts, Rob Rupp, Jackie Shackle, Bob & Joan Sichel, Darren Smith, Father Snoke, Bob Staggs, Rodger Stoner, Melvin Troyer, Connie Turner, Glenda Warren, for the unborn & closure of abortion clinics. When admitted to a hospital please identify yourself as Catholic and call the parish office.

Fr. Snoke is home again in Lancaster. His phone number is 504-7878 and his address is 1380 Hamburg Rd SW, Lancaster OH, 43130.

Thank you... I want to thank my St. Luke family for allowing the Danville Public Library to hold their Summer Reading Programs at the Center. We had another successful year with over 343 kids and 255 adults reading and attending our programs. We are so lucky to live in a loving and caring community.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) begins Thursday, September 4 at 7pm in the St. Luke Rectory. The sessions initially begin with an Inquiry Phase. This is a time to ask questions about the Catholic Faith, what Catholics believe and how we worship God.

All who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, both Catholic and non-Catholic are welcome to attend these sessions, whether you have a desire to enter into the Catholic faith and receive the blessed sacraments and/or want to learn more about the Catholic faith and our Christian heritage. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact Father Hammond or Father Vince, call the parish office or Mimi Durbin, RCIA director, at 599-6585. If there is someone you feel should be extended an invitation to join us, please call the parish office.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of August 9/10, 2014 – Today’s Gospel reveals what miraculous things can happen when one embraces a single-minded faith in Jesus Christ. Peter gets out of a wind-tossed boat when the Lord calls him. His faith is tested by his obedience to Jesus who is calling him out onto the water. In the midst of the waves and the wind, Peter gets out of the boat and walks toward Jesus. Good stewards heed Christ’s call to them. Sometimes that call directs them to take on seemingly impossible challenges. This week, reflect on how the Lord could be calling you out of the safety of your own “boat” to take on the impossible.

Stewarding Our Families: When “Back to School” means “Back to the Family Dinner Table”

August brings us face to face with one of life’s realities: summer vacation has to end. Children may groan and parents may breathe a sigh of relief, but one thing is certain. The beginning of school brings a return to routine, and this translates into less eating on the run and more scheduled meals around the family dinner table. It’s not always possible for the whole family to eat together, but making it a priority at least some nights of the week can pay big dividends for the Christian steward trying to raise a family of faith. Here are a few dinner table tips:

- Everyone should know certain nights are family dinner nights. Look closely at everyone’s schedule, make a plan, and then hold family nights sacred.
- Whether frozen pizza or prime rib, set the table nicely and sit down. Maybe light a dinner candle or pull out the cloth napkins now and then. Pick up a special dessert once in a while.
- Parents and kids often hit the dinner hour fatigued. Make an effort to relax. Start off with a smile and laughter, even when you’d rather hit the couch.
- If you haven’t already, begin the family custom of praying before meals in a spontaneous way. What was I most thankful for today? Where did I see a situation that calls for prayer? Let everyone take a brief turn. It may lead to a great conversation after the “amen.”
- Resist scolding or criticizing a child at dinner. Never demand to know why the math paper wasn’t turned in, or why the kid will not get out of bed on time. Save it for a private discussion later. Allow the dinner table to be a place of welcome and support.
- Share the ups and downs of your own day. Listen respectfully to their exploits and complaints.
- As you review the day’s events, don’t forget God. Just as you are interested in what your children are reading in literature class or library hour, express an interest in what’s being taught in religion class or in weekly faith formation.
- Set the rule that everyone remains seated until all are finished. Then the meal is complete.
- But the work’s not done. Divide the duties of setting the table, clearing, washing, even cooking so that everyone has a role to play and the work goes quickly.
- Bring back the custom of an “after dinner” prayer, brief and blessed.
