Marriage: The Image of God – This sacrament [Matrimony] leads us to the heart of God's design, which is a plan for a covenant with his people, with us all, a plan for communion. At the beginning of the Book of Genesis, the first book of the Bible, at the culmination of the creation account, it says: "God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them... Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh" (Genesis 1:27; 2:24).

The image of God is the married couple: the man and the woman; not only the man, not only the woman, but both of them together. This is the image of God: love, God's covenant with us, is represented in that covenant between man and woman. And this is very beautiful! We are created in order to love, as a reflection of God and his love. And in the marital union, man and woman fulfill this vocation through their mutual reciprocity and their full and definitive communion of life. –Pope Francis, General Audience, St. Peter's Square, April 2, 2014

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of October 10-11, 2015 – Jesus offers a hard lesson regarding wealth and possessions in today's Gospel. The rich man whom he encountered could not part with his possessions as a condition to becoming a disciple of Jesus. Would our response be the same as the rich man? Do we place our trust in our money and possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity? Do we seek security in our possessions? Good stewards realize that their possessions must not possess them, lest those possessions block their relationship with the Lord.

Bloodmobile – There will be a blood drive held on Tuesday, October 13th at St. Luke's Community Center from 1:00 – 7:00 P.M. Call Julie Didinger (740-390-3114) to make an appointment.

(You cannot be a member of two parishes at once.) Family Registration Forms are available in the parish office and on the tables in church, or one can be mailed to you if requested.

Thank you all for the prayers, cards, and visits following my surgery. They were greatly appreciated. Deb Ridgway
