Welcome to St. Luke Parish! If you are new to the parish, please drop by the parish office at the west end of the Community Center to register. You may also pick up a Family Registration form in the church from the table near the side entrance or in the vestibule, or one can be mailed to you upon request. Just fill it out with your information and return it to the parish office. If you are currently a member of another parish in the diocese, the diocese will transfer your membership to St. Luke's.

An Unfailing Prayer of St. Anthony of Padua (The statue of St. Anthony has been restored to our church.)

O holy St. Anthony, gentlest of saints, your love for God and charity toward all God's creatures made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers.

Miracles followed your word, which you were ever ready to speak for those in trouble or need.

Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to grant also my request.

(Here mention your petition.)

The answer to my prayer may require a miracle; even so, you are the Saint of Miracles!

O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was always full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of the Holy Infant Jesus, who loved to rest in your arms, and the gratitude of my heart will always be yours. Amen.

Novena of Our Lady – The Basilica & National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation, Carey, Ohio invites you to come and pray during the Novena of Our Lady, August 6-14 at 8 pm (Sunday 2:30 pm). Fr. Paul Gawlowski will be the Novena preacher. Join us on this journey of faith, hope and healing. For more information call 419-396-7107 or look them up at olcshrine.com.

Contemplating the Mass at St. Therese's Retreat Center – Thursday, August 24, 2017

Want to get more out of your Sunday (and weekday) attendance at Mass? Here's your chance. Fr. Dan Dury, pastor of St. Catharine Church in Columbus will help you do that very thing at the Catholic Laywomen's Retreat League's third annual Evening of Reflection Thursday, August 24, 2017 from 6-9 p.m.

Using the Mass as his topic, Fr. Dan will present exciting and powerful insights into the history, spirituality, and biblical foundations of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. He will open the door to contemplate more profoundly this most perfect prayer of thanksgiving. In so doing, he will lead the way to a deeper experience of this most sacred of all mysteries, which is the source and summit of all of life.

Held at St. Therese's Retreat Center, 5277 E. Broad Street in Columbus, this presentation will consist of two conferences by Fr. Dury, before and after an elegant prime rib dinner. The event closes with evening prayer in the intimate chapel of the historic retreat center. Unlike the league's weekend retreats, this event is not a silent one. The league plans this Evening of Reflection to attract those who are not inclined toward silence or cannot spare the time or expense of an entire weekend. All women of the diocese are welcome.

Cost is $25 and the deadline is August 1. Space is limited and will fill quickly. The registration form, along with more detailed information, is available at retreatleague@gmail.com or by calling CLRL Secretary Sharon Gehrlich at 614-882-1946. Phone reservations cannot be accepted.

EVENTS OF THE COMING WEEK

Monday July 24 7pm – KofC, 4th Degree meeting
Tuesday July 25 PCCW Public Euchre Card Party—6:15pm Food, 7pm Cards

St. Luke Festival results will be published soon. The festival appears to have netted around $13,000, almost $1,000 more than 2012. Dinner, food stand, and bingo profits were down somewhat along with a slight decrease in profits from games & activities. The auction showed an increase in profit. Almost 400 dinners were served. We thank everyone for their efforts and donations!

NFP Awareness Week is July 23-29, 2017: The USCCB annually focuses attention on Natural Family Planning and Catholic teachings which supports its use in marriage. This year's theme is "It's Time! Say 'Yes' to God's plan for married love."

Catholic Teaching – Marriage is an original gift from God to humanity. Although sin entered the world damaging the marital relationship, this gift was not lost but redeemed by Christ and raised to a sacrament (see Eph. 5:28-32; see also Mtt. 19:4-6). Sacred Scripture proclaims that God created humanity in "His image" as "male and female" (see Gen. 1:27). So unique is this relationship that the marital union makes of the husband and wife "one flesh" (Gen. 2:24). Procreation, Scripture teaches, is a gift from God (Gen. 1:28). When spouses conceive new life, they participate in the Lord God's creative power. This is an awesome privilege and sacred responsibility!

"Take a Fresh Look at Your Marriage" Treat yourselves to a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend and enrich your lives together. Marriage Encounter is 44 hours where married couples can get away from jobs, kids, chores, and phones—and focus only on each other. The next weekend is September 15-17 in central Ohio. For more information or to apply, contact Paul & Marilou Clouse at 614-834-6880 or visit our website at www.wwmecolumbus.org.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION: Each Tuesday after the 8:00 a.m. Mass through Wednesday with Benediction at 10:45 followed by Mass. If you have been hesitant to commit to an every week hour, but would like to come once a month, please call the parish office so we can add you to the schedule. It would be wonderful to have more people participating. Time-slots begin on the half-hour.

St. Leonard Women's Guild, Heath, is having a GIGANTIC rummage sale on August 4 from 9am to 4pm. Great bargains! All proceeds benefit the Guild's church ministries.

Rules for the Journey: "I'm Sorry" – In life we err frequently; we make many mistakes. We all do... Perhaps not a day goes by without making some mistake. The Bible says that the just man sins seven times a day (cf. Proverbs 24:16). And thus, we make mistakes. Hence the need to use these simple words: "I'm sorry." In general, each of us is ready to accuse the other and to justify ourselves. This began with our father Adam, when God asks him, "Adam, have you eaten of the fruit?" "Me? No! It was her, she gave it to me!" (cf. Genesis 3:11-14). Accusing the other to avoid saying "I'm sorry," "Forgive me"—it's an old story! It is an instinct that stands at the origin of so many disasters. Let us learn to acknowledge our mistakes and to ask for forgiveness.

In this way, too, a Christian family grows. We all know that the perfect family does not exist, nor a perfect husband or wife... we won't even speak about a perfect mother-in-law. We sinners exist. Jesus, who knows us well, teaches us a secret: don't let a day end without asking forgiveness, without peace returning to our home, to our family. It is normal for husband and wife to quarrel... Perhaps you were mad, perhaps plates flew, but please remember this: never let the sun go down without making peace! Never, never, never! This is a secret, a secret for maintaining love and making peace.

Pretty words are not necessary... Sometimes just a simple gesture and... peace is made. Never let a day end... for if you let the day end without making peace, the next day what is inside of you is cold and hardened, and it is even more difficult to make peace. Remember: never let the sun go down without making peace! If we learn to say sorry and ask one another for forgiveness, the marriage will last and move forward. When elderly couples, celebrating fifty years together, come to audiences or Mass here at Santa Marta, I ask them, "Who supported whom?" This is beautiful! Everyone looks at each other; they look at me and say, "Both!" And this is beautiful! This is a beautiful witness! ~Pope Francis, Address to Engaged Couples, St. Peter's Square, February 14, 2014
