BE NOT AFRAID – When battered by life's storms, or immersed in a dense fog of suffering and uncertainty, we may feel alone and unequipped to handle the circumstances. Yet with words that echo through thousands of years into the corners of our hearts, the Lord says to us, "Do not fear: I am with you" (Isaiah 41:10).

He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God.

Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.

He is always with us. Jesus promised this when he gave the disciples the same mission he gives to each of us: Go.

Go be my hands and feet to a world enslaved by fear. Go to the woman who is unexpectedly pregnant and fears the future. Go to your friend who fears reprisal at work because he takes a stand for the protection of human life. Go to your aging parent in failing health who fears being a burden. And go to others, too, for their support.

We don't need to have everything figured out. We can simply follow the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, the first disciple: "Do whatever he tells you" (John 2:5).

Walk with each other. Do not be afraid to embrace God's gift of life. Whatever storms or trials we face, we are not alone. He is with us.

"Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20).

Catholic Response to the 500th Anniversary of the Beginning of the Protestant Reformations:

Martin Luther, on October 31, 1517 which sparked the beginning of the Protestant Reformations. Jim lived in Fulda, Germany in 2012 for 11 months while researching this topic. Jim will discuss for the average person some of the causes of the Protestant Reformations and the corresponding response of the Catholic reformation, the life of Martin Luther and some of the reasons he wrote his Theses, and the effects of the Protestant Reformations down through history up to now to both Catholics as well as Protestants. The talk will begin at 6:30 pm followed by a question and answer session at 8pm. The talk will be held in St Vincent De Paul Catholic Church. The entire community is welcome to attend. Please feel free to invite a Protestant family member or friend to the talk.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH 2258 "Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains for ever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being."
