National NFP Awareness Week is July 22-28. If you and your spouse practice NFP, why not take this opportunity to tell others about your experience. The strongest argument for NFP is the testimony of couples who have been practicing the method for several years. "The three most important things to keep in mind when sharing your love of NFP are sincerity in the struggles you have encountered, joy in the wonderful parts and flexibility in allowing others to be where they are on their journey" states Cassie Moriarty, certified instructor of FEMM, Fertility Education and Medical Management.

Where were you in 1968? July 25th marks the 50th anniversary. That was the year that Blessed Pope Paul VI wrote Humanae Vitae (On Human Life) as an affirmation of the Catholic Church's beautiful teaching on married love and responsible parenthood. Many people think they know what the document says, but few have actually read it. Celebrate Humanae Vitae's 50th anniversary by reading the original encyclical, viewing videos of couples' HV stories or recording your own HV story at <https://celebratehv50.com/>.

Making Ordinary Time Exceptional – The entire month of July falls in the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. It's easy to consider other liturgical seasons, such as Lent and Advent, as a time to focus more on our spiritual life, yet we are called to live out our faith year round. We don't have to wait for a time that is "special" or set apart to deepen our relationship with God, He is with us now and always. So rather than thinking of Ordinary Time as being routine or unremarkable, use this season to deepen your devotion and relationship with Christ. "How could I do that?" one might say. As St. Josemaria Escriva stated, "Either we learn to find our Lord in ordinary, everyday life, or else we shall never find him." Here are six ideas on how to spend Ordinary Time. Pray a Novena – create your own. Nine days of prayer, in His presence, for something special for you or someone you love, Be Grateful – Journal your blessings by daily writing 5 things that you are thankful for. Read them at the end of the week (Sunday) starting with, "God, I thank you for..." Put Faith in Action – Give to someone in need. Go through your closet donate what you do not use, Read – Read what others have written about God, faith and the meaning of life. You don't have to agree but it might reinforce what you believe, Go to Mass – How about a weekday Mass, Celebrate Feasts – Check out your Catholic calendar. (Saints Feast Days)

St. Luke and St. Vincent have subscribed to a new educational tool by Bishop Robert Barron. The program is called "Word on Fire" and consists of all his videos. These are available to you via email. You can access these videos from your computer, tablet, or smart phone as often as you like and use them for home study. We have been conducting a trial run of "Word on Fire" and are ready to offer parish wide. Remember this is free to you. All we need is your email address and or mobile phone #. There are cards on the side tables. This program is a great way to learn more about our faith. You may email your information to the office at stluke@ecr.net.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 857: The Church is apostolic because she is founded on the apostles, in three ways: – she was and remains built on "the foundation of the Apostles," the witnesses chosen and sent on mission by Christ himself, – with the help of the Spirit dwelling in her, the Church keeps and hands on the teaching, the "good deposit," the salutary words she has heard from the apostles, – she continues to be taught, sanctified, and guided by the apostles until Christ's return, through their successors in pastoral office: the college of bishops," assisted by priests, in union with the successor of Peter, the Church's supreme pastor": You are the eternal Shepherd who never leaves his flock untended. Through the apostles you watch over us and protect us always. You made them shepherds of the flock to share in the work of your Son....
