Monday	July 1	6:30pm – Parish Council

Sat/Sun	July 6/7	Danville Interchurch (envelopes in your packet) Mission Co-Op (see below)

Mission Co-op Weekend, July 6/7: Fr. Peter Asantebwana from the Diocese of Moshi in Tanzania will be here. His diocese focuses on a school for the children with special needs, St. Pamachus Inclusive High School. Children with different disabilities have been ignored in the community for a long time. Currently, there is no single high school they can attend. The Moshi diocese is building a special school to specifically accommodate children with all kinds of disabilities. Please consider donating to this mission so vulnerable children will know that God still loves them, and they have a chance in the world. We are called to become the voice of the voiceless children who have been neglected. Your prayers and donations for our project are greatly appreciated. Thank you for your support!

PSR and Youth Group raised $251.61 during Lent and purchased 17 personal hygiene kits for the homeless in Knox County. The kits will be distributed to The Winter Homeless Shelter this Fall by Youth Group members. Thank you to all the students who donated!

Volunteers are needed to make the festival a success. Please mark your calendars now and plan to participate in our faith community by volunteering your time. Sign up sheets are in the back of the Church.

Making Ordinary Time Exceptional – The entire month of July falls in the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. It's easy to consider other liturgical seasons, such as Lent and Advent, as a time to focus more on our spiritual life, yet we are called to live out our faith year-round. We don't have to wait for a time that is "special" or set apart to deepen our relationship with God, He is with us now and always. So rather than thinking of Ordinary Time as being routine or unremarkable, use this season to deepen your devotion and relationship with Christ. “How could I do that?” one might say. As St. Josemaria Escriva stated, "Either we learn to find our Lord in ordinary, everyday life, or else we shall never find him." Here are six ideas on how to spend Ordinary Time: Pray a Novena – create your own. Nine days of prayer, in His presence, for something special for you or someone you love. Be Grateful – Journal your blessings by daily writing 5 things that you are thankful for. Read them at the end of the week (Sunday) starting with, “God, I thank you for...” Put Faith in Action – Give to someone in need. Go through your closet and donate what you do not use. Read – Read what others have written about God, faith and the meaning of life. You don't have to agree but it might reinforce what you believe. Go to Mass – How about a weekday Mass. Celebrate Feasts – Check out your Catholic calendar. (Saints Feast Days)

Catechism of the Catholic Church 618: The cross is the unique sacrifice of Christ, the “one mediator between God and men.” But because in his incarnate divine person he has in some way united himself to every man, “the possibility of being made partners, in a way known to God, in the paschal mystery” is offered to all men. He calls his disciples to “take up [their] cross and follow [him],” for “Christ also suffered for [us], leaving [us] an example so that [we] should follow in his steps.” In fact, Jesus desires to associate with his redeeming sacrifice those who were to be its first beneficiaries. This is achieved supremely in the case of his mother, who was associated more intimately than any other person in the mystery of his redemptive suffering. Apart from the cross there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven.
