Why sign up for Eucharistic Adoration? “Remain in My Presence whenever and for as long as you can. Being with Me is the great means to healing and to holiness. Come to Me full of expectant hope and I will do the rest. To adore Me is to seek My Face and to approach My Heart, full of wonder and of holy fear, and above all, full of love. Adoration is the wordless confession of My divinity. Adoration proclaims that I am all and that all else is naught.” From: When Heart Speaks to Heart, The Journal of a Priest at Prayer. Eucharistic Adoration: Tuesday mornings beginning at 8:30am continuing all day and night until 10:30am on Wednesday morning. Please sign up for an hour to keep our Lord company. Catechism of the Catholic Church 2545, 2547: All Christ’s faithful are to “direct their affections rightly, lest they be hindered in their pursuit of perfect charity by the use of worldly things and by an adherence to riches which is contrary to the spirit of evangelical poverty.” “Blessed are the poor in spirit.” The beatitudes reveal an order of happiness and grace, of beauty and peace. Jesus celebrates the joy of the poor, to whom the Kingdom already belongs: The Word speaks of voluntary humility as “poverty in spirit”; the Apostles gives an example of God’s poverty when he says: “For your sakes he become poor.”
