Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, February 16: “For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:20 The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear - it's the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of modern-day Pharisee. Learn how you can show your faith by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

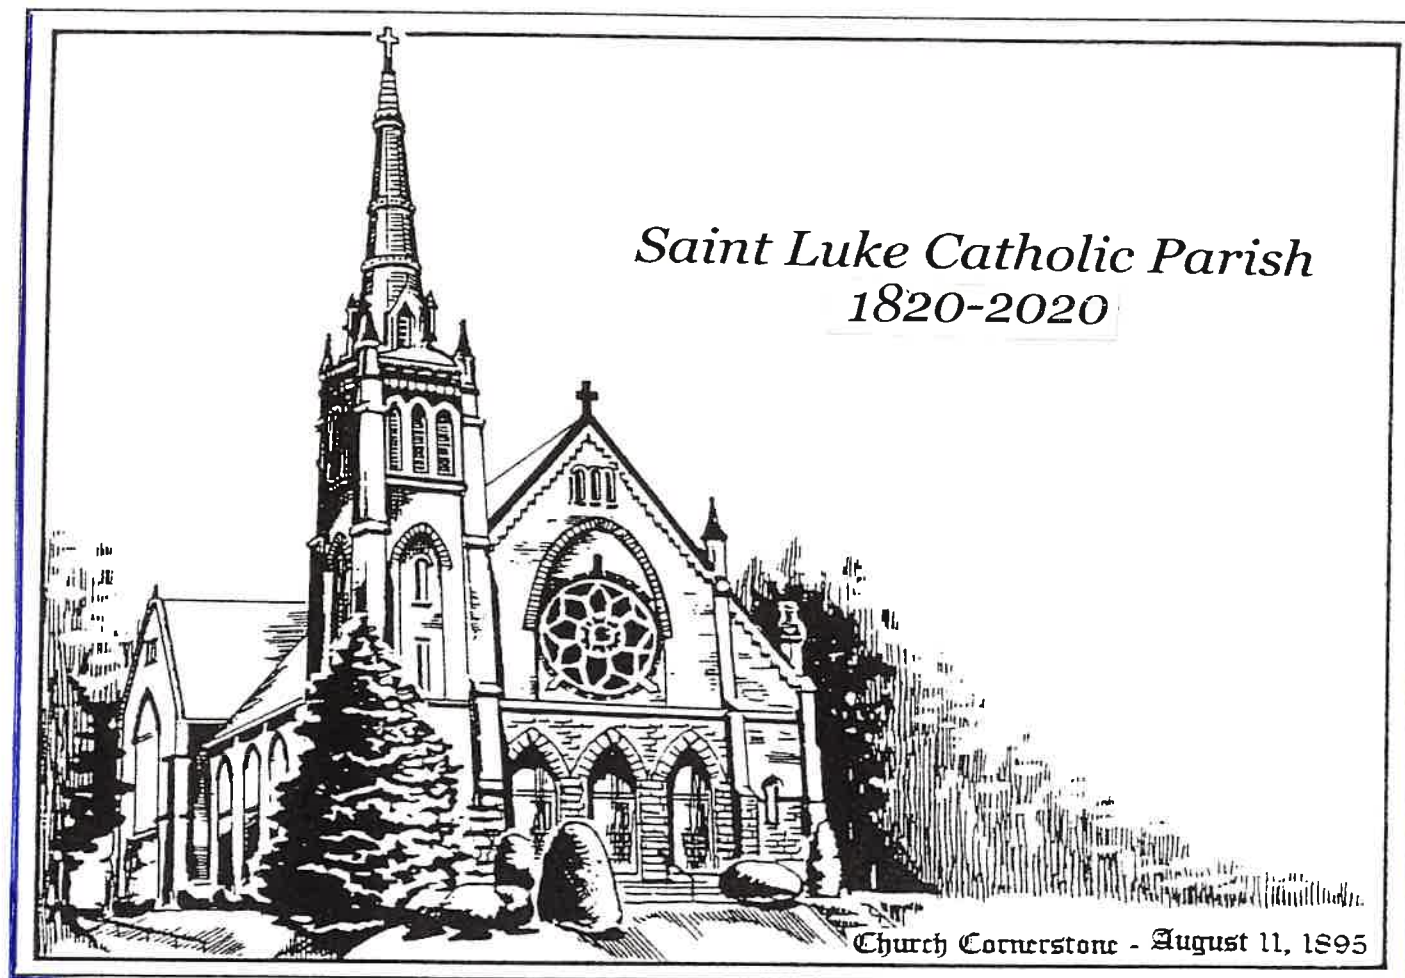

This year marks the 150th anniversary of St. Joseph being solemnly declared Patron of the Catholic Church by Pope Pius IX in his decree Quemadmodum Deus. Everyone at St Luke parish is invited to participate in this consecration which begins Sun, Feb 16 and ends on the Solemnity of St. Joseph, which is Thurs, March 19. Fr Olvera will allow us to publicly consecrate ourselves to St. Joseph when the consecration ends like he did with the Marian consecration. Everyone reads the short daily reading and does the consecration prayers on their own. Every week a small group may meet to answer the discussion questions in the book and recite consecration prayers as a group. Books are available at the office and they are $8. For specific details, go to <https://www.consecrationtostjoseph.org/introduction.html>.

Monday evening Lenten Presentations: Deacon Mott will be offering a weekly 45-minute presentation followed by a Q&A on "How to get more out of Lent" beginning Monday, Feb 17 and concluding Monday, March 30 (7 weeks). The meetings will begin at 6:30pm and will be offered at the St Vincent de Paul Parish office building. All parishioners, families, and friends of St Luke's are invited to attend.

PCCW will be meeting on Tuesday, March 10 from 6-9pm for an evening of painting and fellowship! Drinks and food will be available while you create your masterpiece! The cost of $35 for person includes all the supplies needed. Cash or check will be accepted. The picture we will be creating will be the front of our Church with the beautiful magnolia tree. A sample will be posted on the center bulletin board and the bulletin board by the office. Deadline to sign up is March 8. Contact Marcia Durbin at 740-599-6459.

SAVE THE DATE: St. Luke Festival, Saturday, June 13 from 5-10pm, Mass at 4pm. Please plan to attend and help if you are able. We are celebrating our 200th Anniversary of St. Luke Parish, so pass this on. We would love to have lots of former parishioners come 'home' for the festival.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2196: In response to the question about the first of the commandments, Jesus says: "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." The apostle St. Paul reminds us of this: "He who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery, You shall not kill, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,' and any other commandment, are summed up in this sentence, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law."

IT'S NOT TOO LATE to sign up for The Catholic Times! For a minimum donation of only $17 (less than 39 cents per issue), Catholic news from the diocese will be delivered right to your mailbox. Use the envelope provided in your February packet, or simply write your name and "Catholic Times" on a plain envelope, make your check payable to the parish, and drop it into the collection basket. As an evangelization tool, Bishop Brennan encourages all Catholic households in the diocese to receive and read our diocesan newspaper, The Catholic Times. You need The Catholic Times to keep up on all of the news throughout the diocese and the Catholic world.

The Catholic Foundation's Applications for Scholarships will open on January 31 and close March 2. Since 2007, The Catholic Foundation has awarded over $825,000 in scholarships empowering over 150 young people to continue their academic and vocational studies. For more information and to apply, please visit www.catholicfoundation.org/scholarships. If you have any questions about our scholarship process please feel free to contact Dan Kurth, VP of Grants, at 614-443-8893 or dkurth@catholic-foundation.org.

The cost for adults is $40/students $25 and includes breakfast and lunch. Register now online at CatholicMensMinistry.com or call 614-505-6605.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 26th. Lent is a season where we try to grow closer to God. Try something new this Lent and consider listening to Catholic Radio AM 820. Listening to AM 820 is a good way to deepen your knowledge and love of the Catholic faith."

Face Forward will be presenting two students in the Columbus Diocese in grades 8-12, $500 each for their outstanding service activities within their community and parish. The Diocese of Columbus, Office of Vocations is sponsoring this award. Students will need to write a short essay about a time when they were inspired by a seminarian, priest, teacher or youth minister. A list of parish and community activities must also be submitted with essay by March 20. For more information go to faceforwardcolumbus.com/service-awards.

Dr. Scot Hahn, Catholic theologian known worldwide, will be the speaker at the men's conference on March 7 at the Basilica of Mary of the Assumption in Marietta, Ohio. The conference theme is "Rise Up O Men of God: Rediscovering the Joy of the Gospel. The day will include Adoration, Reconciliation, several talks, and Mass. For registration and more information, visit: <https://stpaulcenter.com/steubenville-conference/>.

Walking with Purpose, "Living in the Father's Love" Lenten Season 2020
 This brief but powerful six-lesson Bible study is the ideal way to revive and refresh yourself. Discover just how much God loves us and how the Gospels are deeply relevant to our relationship with God and with those we love. St. Luke Parish will offer this bible study on Monday from 9:30-11am, March 2 to April 6 and Tuesday from 7-8:30pm, March 3 to April 7. All women are invited to participate. Cost of the study guide is $20. If cost is an issue or if you need childcare or transportation, please let us know. The study guides are in the parish office. If you wish, you may pick up your book during office hours. To register or for more information, please call the parish office, or contact Joann Campanelli at jcampanelli2016@gmail.com or Judy Hedge at judeicons@gmail.com. For more information go to www.walkingwithpurpose.com.
