MISSION STATEMENT – We are St. Luke Church, people of God, created in the image and likeness of Christ, and committed to living our faith in the Roman Catholic tradition under the authority and direction of the Pope, Bishop and Pastor. As people baptized in Christ, gifted with many talents and rooted in strong families, we reach out and welcome all. Our mission is to proclaim the good news, as a prayerful and caring community celebrating Christ's presence in worship, sacraments, and service.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal, June 6/7. What Is a Home Mission Diocese? Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass and the other sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and lay people. Right now, over 40 % of dioceses are considered home missions.

Pentecost Sunday, May 31: "To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." 1 Corinthians 12:7 To receive the gift of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love and mercy. Learn how you can show your gratitude and thanks by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

Welcome to St. Luke Catholic Church: Please wear a mask throughout the service until just before receiving communion. Please only use the restroom for emergencies. Please take this bulletin home with you. An usher will dismiss you for Communion and at the end of the Mass.

Mass Intentions: If you would like to have a Mass intention for someone you love or someone who needs prayers, please mail it in the Church. Please list name and/or intention, given by and mail stipend of $10.

Starting Point Baby Bottle Campaign: For over 30 years, Starting Point has ministered God's truth and love to the young families of Knox County. If you are looking for ways to support our community during these difficult times, Starting Point would love to partner with you in the annual Baby Bottle Campaign. While physical baby bottles will NOT be distributed at local churches this year, there are still multiple ways to give! Throughout the month of June, you can:

- visit KnoxStartingPoint.com to give online
- mail donations by check or drop off the cash and coins you collect to 11 Woodlake Trail in Mount Vernon during posted business hours. For more information, please call 740-393-5074 or email Development@KnoxStartingPoint.com. Thank you for partnering with this life-changing ministry!

Flocknotes: St. Luke has been using Flocknotes to communicate with parishioners. If you gave your cell phone number and/or email address to receive Flocknotes, you should be getting texts and/or emails as events happen. There have been a few people who cannot receive emails; they bounce back. Perhaps they have said to "Stop"? Others seem not to be opening the emails, perhaps because they are going to spam. If you check your spam and see Flocknotes there, please add mail@flocknote.com to your address book or safe sender list.

If you wish to begin receiving Flocknotes, please go to www.flocknotes.com and sign-up. You may also call the office or Sandy Mickley at 740-507-9569 to get signed up. If you do not have email or use a cell phone, please let us know. As events occur, we can mail the information to you.

St. Luke Church has a hearing loop to help those with hearing loss hear our services better. If you have a T-Coil equipped hearing aid, please switch your hearing device to the T setting. For those without hearing aids, wireless headsets are also available from the ushers.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 731, 732: On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, manifested, given, and communicated as a divine person: of his fullness, Christ, the Lord, pours out the Spirit in abundance. On that day, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed. Since that day, the Kingdom announced by Christ has been open to those who believe in him: in the humility of the flesh and in faith, they already share in the communion of the Holy Trinity. By his coming, which never ceases, the Holy Spirit causes the world to enter into the "last days," the time of the Church, the Kingdom already inherited though not yet consummated. We have seen the true Light, we have received the heavenly Spirit, we have found the true faith: we adore the indivisible Trinity, who has saved us.

Welcome to St. Luke Catholic Church: Please wear a mask throughout the service until just before receiving communion. Please only use the restroom for emergencies. Please take this bulletin home with you. An usher will dismiss you for Communion and at the end of the Mass.

Pentecost Sunday
May 31, 2020

1st Reading Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures. R

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth. R

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord be glad in his works! Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the Lord. R

2nd Reading 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord." Except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all give to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel Acclamation

R: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. R

Gospel John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."
