Thank you to all who mailed in your contributions or gave online through the Diocese! Your financial stewardship to the Parish helps us to keep our bills paid. Your prayers, help with ministries, reaching out to those in your church family, and financial support are especially appreciated during this time of uncertainty.

To give through the Diocese of Columbus, go to <https://www.columbuscatholic.org/extreme-charity>. Read down to "Give to Your Parish Offertory Support" and click on the small green & white box. You can then click on your choice of recurring payments, one-time gift with debit/credit card, or one-time gift with bank account. You will then be able to fill out your information, amount you wish to give, etc.

Religious Education Collection, this weekend, July 18-19. This annual collection helps meet the expenses of our Parish School of Religion (PSR), the Youth Group, and tuition support for St. Luke's students attending Catholic School, as well as adult education including our Word on Fire program. Envelopes are in your packets. Please be generous.

BAA 2020 Prayer Almighty, ever living God, Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, came into our world – our lives – to bring us abundant life, life springing from you our God. We have come to know and experience that life with and through the joy that comes from the Gospel – our Lord's life and message. Bless this Bishop's Annual Appeal. May all who respond to it out of their faith and love, and all whose hope is increased through its proceeds, continue to live the joy of the Gospel. We ask this through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

VOLUNTEERS are needed to keep our Church family safe! We need Ushers, Sacristans and Church Cleaners. New protocols and training provided. Please email or call Sandy, Jane, or the office if you are called to help in one of these important ministries.

“None of those who cry out ‘Lord, Lord’ will enter the Kingdom of God, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.” (Matthew 7:21) Jesus made clear that being a wise and prudent steward of all God’s gifts is part of living His will for us. What does God want to accomplish through me?

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time, July 19: “The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.” Matthew 13:24, 37-38 As children of God, we are all “good seeds.” We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God’s plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God’s kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow “good seeds” on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven! Learn how you can put God in all things by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will meet on Tuesday, July 21st at 6:30 in Ariel Park. We will meet at the Park National Bank Pavilion where there is a spacious patio. All are welcome to attend the meeting. Please bring your own chair. For additional information, contact Patrick Kent, 740-504-9311.

Danville Interchurch assists the needy in the Danville and East Knox school districts. They have a food pantry and assist with utilities and rent within their guidelines. They also operate the ‘Church Mouse’ thrift store. The parish collects financial donations for Interchurch twice a year, in July and December. Envelopes are in your packets, or you may mark your donation for Danville Interchurch.

The 2020 Bishop’s Annual Appeal: “Living the Joy of the Gospel,” the theme of the Bishop’s Annual Appeal, inspires us, as people of faith, to share joyfully the Good News of Christ to those who most need to feel His love. Works of kindness and assistance, sometimes in the smallest way, can bring about a profound change in a person’s life. Through the Bishop’s Annual Appeal, we have an opportunity to bring about a positive change in the lives of many of God’s people. Through your generosity, you are supporting the various ministries and programs that are vital in spreading His love. We encourage you to make a gift or pledge. Our parish has been asked to raise $28,205. We can accomplish this if, after prayerful consideration, everyone gives what they can. Any amount raised over our goal will be returned to our parish to be used for our particular needs. Your past generosity enabled us to pay for the recent renovation of the church and our goal is to begin to replenish our parish reserves, so that future generations will have what is needed for our beautiful church. Envelopes were mailed to you and additional envelopes are available at the entrances. For more information, go to www.columbuscatholic.org/baa. Pledges for first week totaled $6,910. Thank You!

National Natural Family Planning Week! JULY 19 - JULY 25, 2020 Natural Family Planning (NFP) is a general term for methods of achieving or postponing pregnancy based upon observation of the natural indicators of fertile and infertile times in a woman’s menstrual cycle. NFP is a holistic approach to reproductive health and responsible parenthood. The dates of Natural Family Planning Awareness Week highlight the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, conjugal love and responsible parenthood. The dates also mark the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother. For information, contact nfp@usccb.org.

Reconciliation is being offered Saturdays, from 3:30-4:00pm: Please follow these guidelines:

- Appointments must be made. Please call, text Sandy Mickley at 740-507-9569 (no voice mails, please), or email samickley98@yahoo.com.
- Please take your temperature before coming and stay at home if you do not feel well.
- Confessions will be in the Community Center. Plan to arrive 5 minutes early and to wear a face mask or other covering over your nose and mouth.
- You will enter through the glass lobby door with a Knight there to monitor those going in and out so as not to disrupt one’s confession. Do not touch doors, walls, etc. if possible. An area will be designated to stand. Confessions will not be face-to-face. Father will wear a mask and face away to avoid exposure and for your anonymity.
- Come and confess your sins, receive penance & absolution, and go home to do your penance. An Act of Contrition will be posted for you to read.

Welcome to St. Luke Catholic Church: Please wear a mask throughout the service until just before receiving communion. Please only use the restroom for emergencies. Please take this bulletin home with you. An usher will dismiss you for Communion and at the end of the Mass. Please leave your kneeler down so the cleaners know which pews need to be sanitized.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 827: “Christ, ‘holy, innocent, and undefiled,’ knew nothing of sin, but came only to expiate the sins of the people. The Church, however, clasping sinners to her bosom, at once holy and always in need of purification, follows constantly the path of penance and renewal.” All members of the Church, including her ministers, must acknowledge that they are sinners. In everyone, the weeds of sin will still be mixed with the good wheat of the Gospel until the end of time. Hence the Church gathers sinners already caught up in Christ’s salvation but still on the way to holiness: The Church is therefore holy, though having sinners in her midst, because she herself has no other life but the life of grace. If they live her life, her members are sanctified; if they move away from her life, they fall into sins and disorders that prevent the radiation of her sanctity. This is why she suffers and does penance for those offenses, of which she has the power to free her children through the blood of Christ and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Opening Hymn “See Us Lord About Your Altar”

See us, Lord, about your altar, Tho' so many we are one;
Many souls by love united In the heart of Christ, your Son.

Hear our prayers, O loving Father, Hear in them your Son, our Lord;
Hear him speak our love and worship As we sing with one accord.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

There is no god besides you who have the care of all, that you need show you have not unjustly condemned. For your might is the source of justice; your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all. For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved; and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity. But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us; for power, whenever you will, attends you. And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

Responsorial: Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.

Hearken, O LORD, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading. R.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O LORD, and glorify your name.

For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds; you alone are God. R.

You, O LORD, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.

Turn toward me, and have pity on me; give your strength to your servant. R.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 13:24-43

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: “The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?’ He answered, ‘An enemy has done this.’ His slaves said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’ He replied, ‘No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, “First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

He proposed another parable to them. “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the ‘birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.’”

He spoke to them another parable. “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened.”

All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables. He spoke to them only in parables, to fulfill what had been said through the prophet: I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.

Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house. His disciples approached him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.” He said in reply, “He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all who cause others to sin and all evildoers. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear.”

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing hymn “The Church’s One Foundation”

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation By water and the word.
From heaven he came and sought her To be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died.
Elect from every nation, Yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation, “One Lord, one faith, one birth!”
One holy Name she blesses, Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses, With every grace endued.
