Sharing our time, talent, and treasure brings us closer to God, who provides us with a better understanding of His presence in our lives. Here I am Lord; I have come to do Your will. Jesus asks us to love as He has loved to demonstrate our love for Him through our generosity to others. In our everyday lives He calls us to share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with others. Please be generous of yourself with others.

18th Sunday of Ordinary Time, August 2: “Jesus said to them, ‘There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves’.” Matthew 14:16 This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand men. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But, we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need. We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us. Learn how you can share your gifts by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

The 2020 Bishop's Annual Appeal: "Living the Joy of the Gospel," the theme of the Bishop's Annual Appeal, inspires us, as people of faith, to share joyfully the Good News of Christ to those who most need to feel His love. Works of kindness and assistance, sometimes in the smallest way, can bring about a profound change in a person's life. Through the Bishop's Annual Appeal, we have an opportunity to bring about a positive change in the lives of many of God's people. Through your generosity, you are supporting the various ministries and programs that are vital in spreading His love. For more information, go to www.columbuscatholic.org/baa. Our parish has been asked to raise $28,205. Our Pledges now total $29,390 and $25,060 has been paid, with 68 households making pledges. Thank you to all who have made a pledge! We have about 300 households, so to those of you who have not made a pledge, please prayerfully consider what you can give. (Last year, we raised over $47,000). Any amount paid over our goal is returned to our parish to be used for our needs. Your past generosity enabled us to pay for the recent renovation of the church and our goal is to begin to replenish our parish reserves, so that future generations will have what is needed for our beautiful church. Envelopes were mailed to you and additional envelopes are available at the entrances. You may also make your pledge online through the Columbus Catholic Giving Website <https://columbuscatholicgiving.org>.

BAA 2020 Prayer: Almighty, ever living God, Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, came into our world – our lives – to bring us abundant life, life springing from you our God. We have come to know and experience that life with and through the joy that comes from the Gospel – our Lord's life and message. Bless this Bishop's Annual Appeal. May all who respond to it out of their faith and love, and all whose hope is increased through its proceeds, continue to live the joy of the Gospel. We ask this through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reconciliation is being offered Saturdays, from 3:30-4:00pm: Please follow these guidelines:

- Appointments must be made. Please call or text Sandy Mickley at 740-507-9569 (no voice mails, please), or email samickley98@yahoo.com.
- Please take your temperature before coming and stay at home if you do not feel well.
- Confessions will be in the Community Center. Plan to arrive 5 minutes early and to wear a face mask or other covering over your nose and mouth.
- You will enter through the glass lobby door with a Knight there to monitor those going in and out so as not to disrupt one's confession. Do not touch doors, walls, etc. if possible. An area will be designated to stand. Confessions will not be face-to-face. Father will wear a mask and face away to avoid exposure and for your anonymity.
- Come and confess your sins and receive penance & absolution. You can go home to do your penance. An Act of Contrition will be posted for you to pray.

Cancellation: Due to the current coronavirus situation our 200th Anniversary celebration scheduled for August 15 has been cancelled.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 547, 1335: Jesus accompanies his words with many "mighty works and wonders and signs," which manifest that the kingdom is present in him and attest that he was the promised Messiah. The miracle of the multiplication of the loaves, when the Lord says the blessing, breaks and distributes the loaves through his disciples to feed the multitude, prefigure the superabundance of this unique bread of his Eucharist. The sign of water turned into wine at Cana already announces the Hour of Jesus' glorification. It makes manifest the fulfillment of the wedding feast in the Father's kingdom, where the faithful will drink the new wine that has become the Blood of Christ.

18th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Opening Hymn “Soul of My Savior”

Soul of my Savior, sanctify my breast,
Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest,
Blood of my Savior, bathe me in thy tide,
Wash me with water flowing from thy side.

Strength and protection may thy Passion be,
O Blessed Jesus, hear and answer me;
Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me,
So shall I never, never part from thee.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus, says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water!
You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat;
Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life.
I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

Responsorial: Psalm 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works. R.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. R.

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works.

The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. R.

Second Reading: Romans 8:35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, “This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves.” But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing hymn “Now Thank We All Our God”

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this gracious God Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us,
Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress,
And free us from all sin, Till heaven we possess.
