Damascus: Our desire is that every student would be awakened, empowered, and equipped to live the adventure of their Catholic Faith. Our programs are designed to invite students to engage with the richness of faith that they receive through the work and sacrifice of those around them who seek to educate the next generation of leaders. We have been blessed with an incredible opportunity to partner with Catholic Schools and parishes to provide an experience that supports the teachings and discipleship that are already happening within these environments. For more information feel free to contact Sheryl Mickley, St. Luke Religious Education Administrator at 740-507-1737 or go to <https://damascus.net/>.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2443: God blesses those who come to the aid of the poor and rebukes those who turn away from them: "Give to him who begs from you, do not refuse him who would borrow from you"; "you received without pay, give without pay." It is by what they have done for the poor that Jesus Christ will recognize his chosen ones. When "the poor have the good news preached to them," it is the sign of Christ's Presence.

Opening Hymn “Alleluia! Sing to Jesus”

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus! His the scepter, His the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion Thunder like a mighty flood;
"Jesus out of every nation Hath redeemed us by His blood.

Alleluia! King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own.
Alleluia! Born of Mary, Earth thy footstool, heaven thy throne:
Thou within the veil hast entered, Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Thou on earth both priest and victim In the Eucharistic feast.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred:

For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not.

I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me.

I am the LORD, there is no other.

Responsorial: Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands.

Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds. R.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the LORD made the heavens. R.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name! Bring gifts, and enter his courts. R.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth;

say among the nations: The LORD is king, he governs the peoples with equity. R.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel Acclamation: Philippians 2:15d, 16a

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin.

He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Hymn "To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King"

To Jesus Christ, our Sovereign King, Who is the world's salvation,

All praise and homage do we bring And thanks and adoration.

Christ Jesus, victor! Christ Jesus, ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and redeemer!

Thy reign extend, O King benign, To every land and nation;

For in Thy kingdom, Lord divine, Alone we find salvation.

Christ Jesus, victor! Christ Jesus, ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and redeemer!
