Welcome to St. Luke Catholic Church: We ask that you wear a mask throughout the service until just before receiving communion and only use the restroom for emergencies. Please take this bulletin home with you. An usher will dismiss you for Communion and at the end of the Mass. Please leave your kneeler down so the cleaners know which pews need to be sanitized.

February is American Heart Awareness Month.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 17. How will you live Lent this year? Here are three tips to deepen your relationship with God. 1) Participate in the sacraments, especially Confession if it has been a while, 2) Help those in need around you at home, at school, or at the work, 3) Sacrifice something that is hard for you. Offer it up to someone you love. Walk with Jesus this Lent. Draw Him close.

Prayers are requested for....Kaden Allerding, Jeff Allison, Cynthia Barkhimer, Rose Crawford, Jim Denuit, Gretchen Dues, Natalie Ebner, Jared Foley, Patrick Gaffney, Julie Grimes, Kim Hamm Householder, Tripp Heffelfinger, Betty Hoffman, Karen Koegle, Amy Koegly, Alana Leavitt, Thomas Leavitt, Rosalee Mathie, Jill McDonald, Barb Miller, Joe Miller, Laura Mills, Steve Meyers, Lorna Patton, Delaney Rothgeb, Beth Sapp, Bob Sichel, Barb Smith, Martha Stutz, Terri Tharp, Father Victor Wesolowski, for those affected by the opioid crisis, for the closure of abortion clinics and for all those affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Please call the parish office when admitted to the hospital if you wish a visit.

If you register before Feb. 8, you will receive Devin Schadt's Book, "The Path," a copy of the program, and a $5 off coupon for Panera Bread (online order). St. Luke will be hosting this event in the center with a light breakfast and lunch. All men from St. Luke and St. Vincent are invited to register. This event may also be watched online on home.

SVDP/St. Luke Parishes join CANA90! For families, the Lenten journey begins in the home. We believe God wants you to grow in relationship to Him as well as your spouse and your children. If you join us, we will share ideas, inspiration, and encouragement, but you will be the ones who customize the program for your needs. CANA90 is insightful, inspirational, and above all practical. Let us begin again and seek transformation through prayer, fasting, and mercy in our marriages and our families. CANA90 workbook are $5. If you want one, call the parish office. To register or for more information go to www.messyfamily.org/join-cana-90/.

The Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time, February 7. "Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, 'Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.'" -Mark 1:35, 38 In today's Gospel reading we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes – healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus makes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we find the strength to do what He wishes us to do. Be sure to find time every day to be with God. Learn how you can best steward your gifts and support your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Catechism of the Catholic Church 2602: Jesus often draws apart to pray in solitude, on a mountain, preferably at night. He includes all men in his prayer, for he has taken on humanity in his incarnation, and he offers them to the Father when he offers himself. Jesus, the Word who has become flesh, shares by his human prayer in all that "his brethren" experience; he sympathizes with their weaknesses in order to free them. It was for this that the Father sent him. His words and works are the visible manifestation of his prayer in secret.

The Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time – February 7, 2021

Opening Hymn “We Are The Light of The World”

Blessed are they who are poor in spirit, Theirs is the kingdom of God.

Bless us, O Lord, make us poor in spirit; Bless us, O Lord, our God.

We are the light of the world, may are light shine before all,

That they may see the good that we do, and give glory to God.

Blessed are they who are meek and humble, They will inherit the earth.

Bless us, O Lord, make us meek and humble; Bless us, O Lord, our God.

We are the light of the world, may are light shine before all,

That they may see the good that we do, and give glory to God.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying: Is not man’s life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of hirelings? He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, “When shall I arise?” then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

Responsorial: Psalm: 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

Praise the LORD, for he is good; sing praise to our God, for he is gracious;

it is fitting to praise him. The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem; the dispersed of Israel he gathers. R.

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

He tells the number of the stars; he calls each by name. R.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power; to his wisdom there is no limit.

The LORD sustains the lowly; the wicked he casts to the ground. R.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Christ took away our infirmities and bore our diseases.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Hymn "Lead Me Lord"

Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God's coming kingdom shall be theirs.
Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.
Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth; be my life, my Lord, and lead me Lord, today.

Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs, and the pure in heart shall see their God.
Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill, for I say they shall be satisfied.
Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord, by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth; be my life, my Lord, and lead me Lord, today.
And lead me Lord today.
