SVDP/St. Luke Parishes join CANA90! For families, the Lenten journey begins in the home. We believe God wants you to grow in relationship to Him as well as your spouse and your children. If you join us, we will share ideas, inspiration, and encouragement, but you will be the ones who customize the program for your needs. CANA90 is insightful, inspirational, and above all practical. Let us begin again and seek transformation through prayer, fasting, and mercy in our marriages and our families. CANA90 workbooks are $5. If you want one, call the parish office. To register or for more information go to www.messyfamily.org/join-cana-90/.

The Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, February 14. "Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." 1 Corinthians 10:31 Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other 'gods' (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, "Am I doing this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?" Learn how you can give back the blessings God has given you by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholicfoundation.org/development for more information.

Please arrive on Tuesday at 6:30pm or 7:30pm, Wednesday at 8:30am or 9:30am to minimize noise and interruption of prayer. You may leave quietly at any time; you need not stay an hour. During Lent we also will be praying the Stations of the Cross. Wednesday morning will be praying the Rosary the second half of our prayer time.

Reconciliation is offered Saturdays, from 3:30-4:00pm: Please schedule an appointment by 4:30pm on Friday by calling or texting Sandy Mickley at 740-507-9569. Confessions are in the Community Center. Wear a face mask. A Knight will be there to monitor those going in and out. Confessions will not be face-to-face. Come, confess your sins, receive penance and absolution. Bloodmobile will be here on Tuesday, February 16 from 1-7pm. Appointments are needed. Please contact redcrossblood.org for an appointment.

Distribution of Ashes: Due to COVID-19, parishioners may receive ashes in a different way. Sprinkling ashes on the crown of the head recalls the biblical method of putting on sackcloth and ashes as a sign of penance. As ashes will be distributed by the manner of sprinkling, there are some things that one should be aware. First, when receiving ashes, simply bow your head. Second, since ashes may fall off of your head, it may be best to wear something that will not show the dark ashes. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact your parish or the Diocesan Office for Divine Worship.

40 Days of Adoration will be hosted at St Vincent on February 18-19, 5pm to 5pm. You may sign up to pray for an hour at <https://stvincentdepaul19.flocknote.com/signup/36284>, or stop in for Adoration at your convenience. Two persons are needed for each hour.

Knights of Columbus Drive-Thru Fish Fry – February 19 & 26 from 5-7pm. Menu includes a generous portion of fried fish, along with scalloped potatoes, green beans, and applesauce. Donations dropped in a basket; no change will be available (previous adult dinners were $9). Dinners will be brought out to your car.

February 14, World Marriage Day, Prayer for Couples: Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Danville Interchurch Needs: Boxed or bagged one dish meals like Hamburger Helper and Tuna Helper.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2616: Prayer to Jesus is answered by him already during his ministry, through signs that anticipate the power of his death and Resurrection: Jesus hears the prayer of the faith, expressed in words (the leper, Jairus, the Canaanite woman, the good thief) or in silence (the bearers of the paralytic, the woman with a hemorrhage who touches his clothes, the tears and ointment of the sinful woman). The urgent request of the blind men, “Have mercy on us, Son of David” or “Jesus Son of David, have mercy on me!” has been renewed in the traditional prayer to Jesus known as the Jesus Prayer: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner!” Healing infirmities or forgiving sins, Jesus always responds to a prayer offered in faith: “Your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

The Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time – February 14, 2021

Opening Hymn “Where Charity and Love Prevail”

Where charity and love prevail, There God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ’s love, By love are we thus bound.

With grateful joy and holy fear God’s charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul Now love God in return.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head.

“The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, ‘Unclean, unclean!’ As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp.”

Responsorial: Psalm: 32:1-2, 5, 11

R. I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Blessed is he whose fault is taken away, whose sin is covered.

Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt, in whose spirit there is no guile. R.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you, my guilt I covered not.

I said, “I confess my faults to the LORD,” and you took away the guilt of my sin. R.

Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just; exult, all you upright of heart. R.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:31 – 11:1

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them."

The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Hymn "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow"

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heav'nly host, Praise Father Son and Holy Ghost.

From all that dwell below the skies Let the Creator's praise arise!
Let the Redeemer's name be sung Through ev'ry land by ev'ry one

Ash Wednesday – February 17, 2021

Opening Hymn: “Forty Days and Forty Nights”

Forty days and forty nights You were fasting in the wild;
Forty days and forty nights Tempted, and yet undefiled.

Shall not we your sorrow share And from worldly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer, Strong with you to suffer pain?

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Joel 2:12-18

Even now, says the LORD, return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning; Rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the LORD, your God. For gracious and merciful is he, slow to anger, rich in kindness, and relenting in punishment. Perhaps he will again relent and leave behind him a blessing, Offerings and libations for the LORD, your God.

Blow the trumpet in Zion! proclaim a fast, call an assembly; Gather the people, notify the congregation; Assemble the elders, gather the children and the infants at the breast; Let the bridegroom quit his room and the bride her chamber. Between the porch and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep, And say, “Spare, O LORD, your people, and make not your heritage a reproach, with the nations ruling over them! Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

Then the LORD was stirred to concern for his land and took pity on his people.

Responsorial: Psalm 51:3-4, 5-6ab, 12-13, 14 & 17

R. Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness;
in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense.

Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. R.

For I acknowledge my offense, and my sin is before me always:

“Against you only have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight.” R.

A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me.

Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me. R.

Give me back the joy of your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me.

O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall proclaim your praise. R.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:20-6:2

Brothers and sisters: We are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Working together, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says: In an acceptable time I heard you, and on the day of salvation I helped you. Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

Jesus said to his disciples: “Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them; otherwise, you will have no recompense from your heavenly Father. When you give alms, do not blow a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets to win the praise of others. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, so that your almsgiving may be secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

“When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, who love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on street corners so that others may see them. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

“When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites. They neglect their appearance, so that they may appear to others to be fasting. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not appear to be fasting, except to your Father who is hidden. And your Father who sees what is hidden will repay you.”

Distributions of Ashes

Closing Hymn: “Led By The Spirit”

Led by the Spirit of our God, we go to fast and pray

With Christ into the wilderness; we join his paschal way.

“Rend not your garments, rend your hearts. Turn back your lives to me.”

Thus says our kind and gracious God, whose reign is liberty.

Led by the Spirit, we confront temptation face to face,

And know full well we must rely on God’s redeeming grace.

On bread alone we cannot live, but nourished by the Word

We seek the will of God to do: this is our drink and food.
